Teaching Abroad:

Teaching to discern Hernando Arturo, Estévez Cuervo, 2019-11-30 The issue of academic environments involves both research and practice It gathers theoretical and practical pieces of knowledge for a permanent analysis and evaluation of pedagogy content and accomplishments in the educational field Moreover educational practices no longer occur within the boundaries of a specific field in a globalized world those practices must overcome their traditional boundaries in order to expand to different disciplines and to different ways of understanding pedagogy In our time knowledge travels ideas and experiences are shared in educational platforms worldwide while educators and students create novel ways to collectively participate in research projects that contribute to a greater understanding of the universe The anthology Teaching to Discern Forming Connections Decolonizing Perspectives aims to provide a novel context for academic dialogue on globalized pedagogical practices pecifically it focuses on what it means to teach abroad which means discussing methodologies pedagogies and contents used by educators who have had the opportunity of teaching in a foreign country This book is a dialogue that engages academic experiences in a theoretically expansive and encompassing methodological and content driven framework around the topic of teaching abroad

Global Innovation of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Prudence C. Layne, Peter Lake, 2014-11-19 This book examines current trends in higher education and the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning It introduces readers to pedagogical strategies that instructors worldwide are using to overcome some of the challenges they face in higher education To maximize their students learning this work argues that institutions are compelled to innovate their policies and instructors must be collaborative and creative in their practices in response to students growing demands needs challenges to their learning and the shifting terrain of a rapidly globalizing world The text explores the idiosyncrasies and challenges that drive innovation across particular cultures disciplines and institutions It suggests that the responses to these drivers offer some universal and compatible lessons that not only optimize teaching and learning but also transgress institutional cultural and disciplinary boundaries in higher education The contributors to this collection work in the United States the United Kingdom Africa Asia Australia Scandinavia and the Middle East They represent a broad range of disciplines fields and institutional types They teach in varied contexts durations delivery modes and formats including online study abroad blended accelerated condensed intensive and mortar and brick settings Their higher education students are equally as diverse in age cultural backgrounds and needs but willingly lend their voices and experiences to their instructors study of teaching and learning in their particular contexts This book harnesses the rich diversities and range our contributors represent and shares the results of their expertise research and assessments of some of the most creative and effective ways to improve student learning in the face of stagnant practices limited resources and other deficiencies that instructors and students face in higher education
