The Color of Rain Michael Spehn, Gina Kell Spehn, 2011-10-04 When unexpected grief brings two families together how do they start their journey to healing Join Michael and Gina Spehn bestselling authors and founders of the New Day Foundation as they tell their story of resilience remembrance and reliance on their shared faith Matt Kell and Cathy Spehn had known each other since grade school As adults they each got married lived in their hometown and attended the same church Their kids even attended school together Matt died at home on Christmas Day after a three year battle with cancer leaving behind his wife Gina and two young boys After attending Matt's inspirational funeral and reaching out to Gina with offers of support Cathy was diagnosed with inoperable brain cancer She died only 17 days later leaving behind her husband Michael and three young children In her final hours Cathy instructed Michael to call Gina Kell The Color of Rain illuminates the stepping stones of loss and healing that ultimately led to a joyful new life for Michael Gina and their five children Their path to becoming a modern day Brady Bunch was paved with grief laughter and the willingness to be restored to a new and even better life despite the inevitable resistance they faced As you learn more about Michael and Gina's story you'll learn The importance of keeping God at the center of your marriage How they navigated becoming a blended family The life changing power of faith even on your darkest days As their dual first person narrative reveals what it is like to walk through loss and love simultaneously you'll have an intimate look at how Michael and Gina lived lost and ultimately persevered through extraordinary circumstances Praise for The Color of Rain The Color of Rain is a testament to God's restoration and grace. Even in our suffering, there is beauty. It rarely makes sense, but it's always true. He makes all things beautiful in His time. Katie Davis, New York Times bestselling author of Kisses from Katie, Michael and Gina Spehn's The Color of Rain is not only an instant bestseller but also an instant classic, certain to be pressed into the hands of hundreds of thousands of grieving men and women by their closest friends, for it is a book that is painfully honest about the depths of sorrow but also full of the joy of the hard path back from near despair. It is another reminder that God is there, however dark the day, and that he will comfort those who call on him. Hugh Hewitt, bestselling author and radio host.

Of the full-length prose works that Thomas Merton wrote before he entered the Cistercian Order in 1941, only My Argument with the Gestapo has survived, perhaps in part because it was a book that Merton never ceased wanting to see in print.
