Religion and Development J. Haynes, 2007-10-12 Jeffrey Haynes adopts a chronological and conceptual approach to introduce students to the central themes and theoretical perspectives in the study of religion and development in the developing world focusing on key themes including environmental sustainability health and education

Human Rights and World Trade Ana Gonzalez-Pelaez, 2004-08-02 A new and incisive analysis of the political viability of human rights with an in depth investigation of its largest violation world hunger Gonzalez Pelaez develops John Vincent s theory of basic human rights within the context of the international political economy and demonstrates how the right to food has become an international norm enshrined within international law She then assesses the international normative and practical dimensions of hunger in connection with international trade and poverty Using the society of states as the framework of analysis she explores the potential that the current system has to correct its own anomalies and examines the measures that can move the hunger agenda forward in order to break through its current stagnation

The Global Politics of Power, Justice and Death Peter Anderson, 2005-07-15 This exciting new text adopts a challenging question led approach to the major issues facing global society today in order to investigate the nature and complexity of global change Among other things it looks at the future of the state the environment the international political economy war and global rivalries and the role of international law and the UN in the post Cold War world The book devises a readily comprehensible change map which both incorporates a wide range of the fundamental concepts of international relations theory and suggests a number of new concepts capable of assisting the investigation of global change This new framework is deployed to look closely at real world issues in order to isolate the crucial factors which determine whether or not mass hunger for example or environmental abuse can be eliminated

Comparative Politics Charles Hauss,2000 This comprehensive text focuses on traditional issues and concepts in comparative politics using a unique theme domestic responses to global challenges The author examines the growing interdependence among strong and weak states and discusses 12 countries including the U S and the European community to help students develop their skills of comparison synthesis and interpretation the author organized the text by economic development

A Concise Introduction to American Foreign Policy Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam,1999 Basically a specialist on Africa Ohaegbulam introduces US foreign policy emphasizing how policy making is accomplished in the complex domestic and external settings He surveys the development and characteristic patterns stressing the central themes and global experience especially since World War II He finds that no grand strategy has replaced the cold war framework and that a number of approaches are contending for dominance Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Gender in Third World Politics Georgina Waylen,1996 This book puts forward a gendered analysis of third world politics It uses a wide definition of the political to examine both high politics and political activity at the grassroots focussing particularly on women s organizations It also examines the impact of policy and politics on gender relations and on different groups of women After a general discussion of the major theoretical questions involved in the study of gender in third world politics and the nature of the third world and development the analysis is developed through the indepth study of different political formations These are colonialism revolution authoritarianism and democracy and democratization and uses examples from much of the third world Gender in Third World Politics is the only book to provide comprehensive coverage of gender in third world politics provides a gendered analysis of both high politics and different women s political activity at the grassroots weaves together material from a wide range of disciplines such as politics sociology history development studies and women s studies

Esprit de

Battuta Pamela Watson,1999 The author recounts her cycle journey across the continent of Africa recalling the joy and the poverty the beauty and terror of the peoples along the way She describes the despair of the awful roads life amid political unrest and village evenings Development and Politics from Below Barbara Bompani, Maria Frahm-Arp, 2010-07-16 The editors of this volume pose major challenges to the research community to re evaluate the concepts assumptions and methods that may veil rather than illuminate contemporary African societies and to develop a better understanding of the relationships between religion politics development and modernity The authors of the individual chapters make a valuable contribution to this research agenda by examining aspects of the place of religion in public spaces how religions function and shape people s lives communities and organizations and the role of religion in the sphere of health Carole Rakodi Director of the Religion and Development Research Programme International Development Department University of Birmingham UK

Vierteljahresberichte ,1989 Human Rights and Good Governance: Building Bridges Hans-Otto Sano, Gudmundur Alfredsson, Robin Clapp, 2002-04-03 While good governance is mainly pursued in a development context it is a central message of the book that good governance guidelines ought to have universal applicability affecting international organisations and public and private actors in Northern as well as Southern countries Yet an established consensus does not exist on how good governance and human rights can or should complement each other The book therefore assesses the advantages of using existing links and identifies ways of building new bridges for mutual support between governance and human rights
