Thirty Three Poems:

33 Sonnets Composés Au Secret Et Autres Poèmes Jean Cassou,2002 Jean Cassou wrote the thirty three sonnets which Aragon admired so much and which form the first part of this collection in a Vichy prison between December 1941 and February 1942 in the dark half a sonnet per night committed to memory and only written down when a few days before his provisional release he was allowed some books a pencil and some sheets of paper Through his fine and thoughtful translation of these sonnets and a selection of Cassou s later poems Timothy Ades gives us the opportunity of discovering an unfamiliar and now historical poetic voice

Love Is Lust First David Amadeus Panckeri,2008-10-15 Gabriel Garcia Marquez is right Unrequited love is what moves the earth and the sky for me And maybe for you I hope not all of your love remains unrequited To gain anything worthwhile in life one has to risk much This book is an autobiography which delves into the pain as well as the nobility of the pursuit of love which can only occur once in a lifetime This book contains 55 poems all of them springing from the deepest emotions of my life This work centers on passion in its many guises from love to lust The purpose of this book is to demonstrate that there can be no limits to desire and no regrets unless a lover does not follow his her heart For the fortunate person whose love has been taken to the limits and then been fully reciprocated finally by a lover this book might not make a lot of sense To those of us who are still believers in finding our missing halves I hope this book inspires To those who have become discouraged rejected or too timid to listen to your hearts I ask you to read this book and stay open to the possibility that your lover could walk into your life as early as the next minute Your heart will tell you Listen to your heart

Metaphysical Shadows Sean H. McDowell,2022-03-01 Metaphysical Shadows The Persistence of Donne Herbert Vaughan and Marvell in Contemporary Poetry examines the ways in which the poetry of John Donne George Herbert Henry Vaughan and Andrew Marvell continues to speak to working poets today Modern Anglophone poets from T S Eliot and Archibald MacLeish in the 1920s and 1930s to Seamus Heaney Maureen Boyle Alfred Corn Anne Cluysenaar Kimberly Johnson and Jericho Brown in the twenty first century have found in the work of John Donne George Herbert Henry Vaughan and Andrew Marvell a strikingly modern intellectualism an emotional intensity and a verbal richness that have inspired their own poems Traces of this inspiration appear in echoes allusions direct responses and similarities in approach and method as poets create new work in their own distinct voices Such contemporary engagements furnish us with cues for how literary studies might approach the literature of the past without sacrificing it in the name of critique They also demonstrate the continuing relevance of seventeenth century English metaphysical poetry in the twenty first century The poems of Donne Herbert Vaughan and Marvell still have the power to cast shadows

The Poetry of Li He Robert Ashmore, 2023-06-19 Li He 790 816 holds a place in China's poetic history somewhat outside the mainstream but in every generation of readers there have been those who have found his intense and often cryptic lyrical visions irresistibly fascinating and utterly without parallel He is renowned particularly for his lyrical reimaginings of song traditions from the ancient past and his premature death along with the otherworldly quality of many of his works led later readers to view him as the emblematic cursed poet whose fascination with ancient history with ghosts and with celestial and demonic beings seemed to presage the brevity of his own existence Li He s style and diction are often idiosyncratic and even hermetic and his work presents daunting challenges to readers wishing to follow the flights of his imagination or simply to construe the basic sense of his language This volume presents close translations of all of Li He s poetry in facing page format with the original texts with explanatory notes on literary and historical references and difficult points of interpretation along with endnotes briefly discussing textual variants and other technical matters Taken together these features will be a welcome aid to readers wishing to explore Li He s poetic worlds first hand Poets and Dreamers lady Isabella Augusta Gregory,1903 The Canterbury Tales and Faerie Queene, with Other Poems of Chaucer and Spenser Geoffrey Chaucer,1881
