Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia Canada Japan Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender ethnicity nationalism multiculturalism diaspora hybridity and transnationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by the colonisers has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial literatures Locating Translingualism Jerry Won Lee, 2022-04-28

Encounters involving different cultures and languages are increasingly the norm in the era of globalization While considerable attention has been paid to how languages and cultures transform in the era of globalization their characteristic features prior to transformation are frequently taken for granted This pioneering book argues that globalization offers an unprecedented opportunity to revisit fundamental assumptions about what distinguishes languages and cultures from each other in the first place It takes the case of global Korea showing how the notion of culture is both represented but also reinvented in public space with examples from numerous sites across Korea and Koreatowns around the world It is not merely about locating spaces where translingualism happens but also about exploring the various ways in which linguistic and cultural difference come to be located via translingualism It will appeal to anyone interested in the globalization of language and culture Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re-visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture
