Alexandre Kojève James H. Nichols Jr., 2007-08-29 Nichols examines the major writings of Alexandre Kojève and clarifies the character and brings to light the importance of his political philosophy While emphasizing the political dimension of Kojève's thought Nichols treats all his major published writings and shows how the remarkably varied parts of Kojève's intellectual endeavor go together This is an essential assessment of Kojève which considers the works that preceded his turn to Hegel seeks to articulate the character of his Hegelianism and reflects in detail on the two different meanings that the end of history had in two different periods of his thought

Global Justice and Recognition Theory Monica Mookherjee, 2023-06-16 In the light of intense international focus on ongoing forms of world poverty this book examines the potential of the concept of recognition in contemporary political philosophy to respond morally to this dire condition This book uses recognition theories to develop a two tiered response to the problem of global poverty First it highlights non degradation non humiliation and the avoidance of social suffering as essential components to the agency of the very poor This runs counter to liberal arguments that focus only on the deficit of basic material interests Second even if universal conditions of agency are met many of the world's extreme poor may still suffer domination The book argues that empowering the world's poor to resist domination is an essential response to global poverty By conceiving poverty in terms of agency and empowerment this book highlights the transnational relevance of recognition theory to one of the most crucial problems affecting a rapidly globalising world Global Justice and Recognition Theory will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in social and political philosophy political theory and global justice

The Rainbow II Lawrence D.H., David Herbert Lawrence 1885-1930 was an English novelist poet playwright and literary critic one of the key writers of the early twentieth century most famous for his criticism of rationalism and industrialization Set in the Nottinghamshire England The Rainbow follows three generations of the Brangwens a strong and energetic family deeply attached to the land they own The book focuses on the individual's struggle against the confining rules and restrictions of social life
