A World Without Ice Henry Pollack Ph.D., 2010-11-02 A co-winner of the 2007 Nobel Peace Prize offers a clear-eyed explanation of the planet's imperiled ice Much has been written about global warming but the crucial relationship between people and ice has received little focus until now As one of the world's leading experts on climate change Henry Pollack provides an accessible comprehensive survey of ice as a force of nature and the potential consequences as we face the possibility of a world without ice A World Without Ice traces the effect of mountain glaciers on supplies of drinking water and agricultural irrigation as well as the current results of melting permafrost and shrinking Arctic sea ice a situation that has degraded the habitat of numerous animals and sparked an international race for seabed oil and minerals Catastrophic possibilities loom including rising sea levels and subsequent flooding of lowlying regions worldwide and the ultimate displacement of millions of coastal residents A World Without Ice answers our most urgent questions about this pending crisis laying out the necessary steps for managing the unavoidable and avoiding the unmanageable

A World Without Police Geo Maher, 2021-08-24 If police are the problem what's the solution Tens of millions of people poured onto the streets for Black Lives Matter bringing with them a wholly new idea of public safety common security and the delivery of justice communicating that vision in the fiery vernacular of riot rebellion and protest A World Without Police transcribes these new ideas written in slogans and chants over occupied bridges and hastily assembled barricades into a compelling must-read manifesto for police abolition Compellingly argued and lyrically charged A World Without Police offers concrete strategies for confronting and breaking police power as a first step toward building community alternatives that make the police obsolete Surveying the post-protest landscape in Minneapolis Philadelphia Chicago and Oakland as well as the people who have experimented with policing alternatives at a mass scale in Latin America Maher details the institutions we can count on to deliver security without the disorganizing interventions of cops neighborhood response networks community-based restorative justice practices democratically organized self-defense projects and well-resourced social services A World Without Police argues that abolition is not a distant dream or an unreachable horizon but an attainable reality In communities around the world we are beginning to glimpse a real lasting justice in which we keep us safe
