Post-graduate ,1909 American Medicine ,1904 Fact-Finding before the International Court of Justice James Gerard Devaney, 2016-09-29 Fact Finding before the International Court of Justice examines a number of significant recent criticisms of the way in which the ICJ deals with facts The book takes the position that such criticisms are warranted and that the ICJ s current approach to fact finding falls short of adequacy both in cases involving abundant particularly complex or technical facts and in those involving a scarcity of facts The author skilfully examines how other courts such as the WTO and inter State arbitrations conduct fact finding and makes a number of select proposals for reform enabling the ICJ to address some of the current weaknesses in its approach The proposals include but are not limited to the development of a power to compel the disclosure of information greater use of provisional measures and a clear strategy for the use of expert evidence
