The contributors are all scholars and researchers who have long been engaged in ELF-related research and who have undertaken operational and practical work in the field and, as such, offer novel perspectives on the effects of EFL research on the teaching and learning of English. The volume also presents the findings of innovative projects in teacher education involving pre- and in-service teachers, providing exemplificative good practices of possible new routes into pluralistic ELF-aware and ELF-oriented didactic perspectives. Teaching and Learning English as an International Language in Portugal, 2005
