The book we've needed the Turabian of search James M. Heffernan State University of New York

This Handbook focuses on administrative searches below the level of the presidency the searches for vice presidents deans directors and coordinators for which the appointment of a search committee is the norm It is written for practitioners for the institutional leaders who will plan the search form the committee and later make the appointment as well as for the chair and members of the search committee itself It is intended as a guide and a fund of ideas to promote better more informed and more effective practice

The second edition of this acclaimed book reflects the extensive changes that have taken place in the hiring climate Video conferencing allows travel free interviewing The Web permits desktop research and has given rise to the online posting of openings Federal and state regulations about hiring and employment have grown apace The use of search firms has expanded from the presidency to other administrative posts The shift in student demographics is increasing the need for faculty staff diversity Perhaps the most significant change is the recent sharp decline in the size of applicant pools for administrative posts All these factors add up to a different and more challenging set of tasks for campus leadership and search committees

To unpack these issues the Atlantic Philanthropies provided a grant to AAHE and the Academic Search Consultation Service to fund a national advisory board undertake extensive literature reviews and conduct focus groups and numerous interviews with committee chairs and others
