Beasley,2017-09-29 The first half of the book is a detailed study of how the salons influenced the development of literature Beasley argues that many women were not only writers they also served as critics for the literary sphere as a whole In the second half of the book Beasley examines how historians and literary critics subsequently portrayed the seventeenth century literary realm which became identified with the great reign of Louis XIV and designated the official canon of French literature Beasley argues that in a rewriting of this past the salons were reconfigured in order to advance an alternative view of this premier moment of French culture and of the literary masterpieces that developed out of it Through her analysis of how the seventeenth century salon has been defined and transmitted to posterity Beasley illuminates facets of France s collective memory and the powers that constituted it in the past and that are still working to define it today To Touch Hearts - Pedagogical Spirituality and St. John Baptist de La Salle George Van Grieken FSC,2011-03-25 This work addresses Lasallian pedagogical spirituality defined as the dynamic integration of foundational convictions basic operative commitments and consistent practices permeating the teaching dimensions of schools that claim the heritage of St John Baptist de La Salle and the Brothers of the Christian Schools The dissertation examines the content of Lasallian pedagogical spirituality and proposes measures for realizing its vitality within Lasallian school life Particular pedagogical characteristics components of an overall pedagogical spirituality are present in the original charism of St John Baptist de La Salle The basic operative commitments that underlie those characteristics ought to be integrally realized in a pedagogy that claims to be Lasallian and wholly incorporated in the formation of Lasallian educators There are three sequential parts to the dissertation 1 an overview of the St John Baptist de La Salle s context and personal history 2 an overview of his literature followed by an analysis of aspects of Lasallian pedagogical spirituality evidenced in that literature according to five pedagogical elements the teacher the student the teacher student relationship the activity of teaching and the school in general and 3 a contemporary articulation of the Lasallian basic operative commitments that characterize his spirituality today along with their implications for the formation of Lasallian educators Extrapolating from the life and writings of De La Salle ten Lasallian operative commitments are proposed The commitments are presented in the form of attributes that may be applied to Lasallian institutions and their pedagogical components 1 centered in and nurtured by the life of faith 2 trusting providence in discerning God's will 3 with creativity and fortitude 4 through the agency of the Holy Spirit 5 incarnating Christian paradigms dynamics 6 with practical orientation 7 devoted to education accessible and comprehensive 8 committed to the poor 9 working in association 10 expressing a lay vocation The dissertation concludes by presenting teacher formation structures and strategies for introducing Lasallian operative commitments and by providing a Lasallian Mission and Vision Statement
