Veracious Imagination:

The veracious imagination Cushing Strout,1981 Narratives and Spaces David E. Nye,1997 Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas and the Apollo 11 moon to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation Nye also turns his attention to the Internet where technology has not simply transformed space but created a whole new kind of space and with it new stories Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas the Apollo 11 moon landing and the new narratives of the Internet to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation In examining the interaction of technology space and American narrative Nye argues against the idea that technology is an inevitable and insidious controller of our lives The Works of George Eliot: The legend of Jubal, and other poems George Eliot,1887 Novel Approaches to Anthropology Marilyn Cohen,2013-09-05 This volume of interdisciplinary essays reflect current contributions to literary anthropology Novel Approaches to Anthropology Contributions to Literary Anthropology showcases the myriad ways that anthropologists bring their disciplinary perspectives theories concepts and pedagogical strategies to interpreting fiction and travel writing written in the past and present The authors integrate insights from the reflexive deconstructive turn in anthropology and from critical Marxist and feminist approaches that ground interpretation in the political economic and social constraints and experiences of everyday life The contributors share the view that fiction like all artistic expression is rooted in specific historical and cultural contexts Literature like all artistic expression stimulates a critical imagination by allowing readers to take a fresh look at their own society and culture Complete Works George Eliot,1885 Telling Histories ,2022-06-08 The proliferation of historical novels with more or less overt metafictional traits in the late seventies and eighties in Britain is a particularly arresting phenomenon at a time when historians are openly questioning the validity of the traditional concept of history understood as a scientific search for knowledge This apparent contradiction justifies the attempt made by the contributors of this volume to analyze the relationship between history and literature in English The reader will find four preliminary essays on The End of the Classical Period establishing the characteristics of the appropriation of history since the appearance of Sir Walter Scott s historical romances with special emphasis on the Victorian novel Dickens Eliot Mrs Humphry Ward the Irish ballad and Post Independence Indian historical fiction as a necessary preface to the main group of essays on The Postmodernist Era devoted to establishing the common as well as the individually distinctive traits in the writings of some of the most accomplished contemporary writers in English the more centered British novelists Margaret Drabble Julian Barnes and William Golding as well as the more ex centric Angela Carter Salman Rushdie and Jeanette
