When Death Calls:

When Death Calls James Vaughan,2014-09-25 I love death Death is beautiful Death is a doorway a portal to another life a path we must walk to reach our next existence I have been walking this path for longer than living memory My soul is old too old In fact I feel it may have gone senile In each life we are born with total amnesia about our past Many of us go through a lot of lives playing out the same tragedy only in different theatres never actually finding out who we are Some of us struggle bit by bit toward completion Death has two faces depending on the state of mind of the individual about to die and on how death comes I am in love with death both the grinning skeletal thing that runs bony cold fingers up your spine and the beautiful midnight lady who calls in a sweet alluring voice Depending on who you are or whether or not I actually like you I am both

Death Calls Robert Crossland,2023-02-28 I wade waist deep into the ocean to reach a body floating face down in the local harbor Police first responders and onlookers quietly watch from the shoreline but blood splotches and marks in the sand suggest that something awful has happened here In 1981 while practicing medicine in a small community on the southern coast of British Columbia Dr Robert Crossland is asked if he d be interested in becoming the local coroner Like many Robert has thrilled to the crusading adventures of TV coroner Wojack and Quincy M E so he takes up the challenge But soon he is to find just how far these TV programs are from the real world of a community coroner During the following twenty three years Robert will investigate and report on more than 600 sudden unexpected deaths in his community and in the surrounding ocean lakes forests and mountains In each case he must establish not only who has died but when where how and why As a member of the community himself he often finds himself personally connected with those who have died Many of the deaths are natural of course but a surprising number are exceptional due to complicated startling unforeseen and sometimes even astonishing circumstances and findings These are the stories of more than a hundred of these remarkable often horrifying events They happen in homes at work sites during recreation or while travelling in boats planes or on roads Some of the deaths prove controversial and Dr Crossland participates in inquests that lead to changes in policies or procedures that reduce the risk of further deaths or sometimes heartbreakingly make no difference at all Sudden death is always disturbing and in vivid pithy engaging anecdotes based on his case files and notes Dr Crossland shares with readers the who when where how and why
