Coworking Spaces Janet Merkel, Dimitris Pettas, Vasilis Avdikos, 2023-11-07 This contributed volume considers the emergence of coworking as centered in labor issues. More specifically its chapters consider it as a coping mechanism in the worldwide rise of independent modes of work i.e. self employment that leaves more and more workers exposed to precarity as they must organize and manage their own labor. Grounded in this perspective this volume aims to understand the transformative social and political potentials emerging through coworking as a social and spatial practice. There is a distinct lack of discussion within coworking research on the emancipatory potentials of coworking and if it is discussed more cautionary views prevail highlighting the ambivalence of coworking spaces both as a space of alternative economic practices and as integrated into market economies. The aims of this collection are twofold. First it aims to make visible the plurality of existing practices around shared resources in coworking and the assemblages of human and non human actors as agents of change associated with coworking and the re organization of work and labor power. And second it aims to develop a more emancipatory narrative for coworking and the role of coworking spaces for workers but also the different spatial contexts in which these spaces are situated. A narrative that does not emphasize entrepreneurship or coworking as the epitome of the neoliberal entrepreneurial self as in the dominant interpretations in the current research but rather one that centers coworking in the creation of meaningful careful social relationships supporting empathy and an ethics that recognizes mutual interdependencies and builds a foundation for social change. So it is about alternative narratives emancipation politics and the wider social role that coworking spaces might play in neighborhoods cities or beyond because they are crucial contexts for the formation and maintenance of social relations. With this specific direction this collection aims to bring coworking research into a fruitful dialog with other research fields such as sociology of work feminist perspectives on care alternative and diverse economies post capitalist transformation critical geography positioning coworking within a range of progressive alternatives in the articulation of economic and social relationships.

European Narratives on Remote Working and Coworking During the COVID-19 Pandemic Mina Akhavan, Marco Hölzel, Divya Leducq, 2023-05-02 This open access book offers a multidisciplinary and comprehensive perspective regarding the immediate and long term effects of the Covid 19 pandemic on coworking spaces in the European Region. The current pandemic has imposed several effects on work and spaces for work. Some are immediate effects and will last for a short time such as the closing down of the space some will last longer namely the reorganisation of the space to meet the physical distancing and some will stay for a long time remote working and hybrid working. Although the literature on coworking spaces and the effects of the pandemic is growing fast empirical studies are yet limited. Within this context this book seeks a twofold aim i) to contribute to the fast growing literature on coworking space and their effects at different scales ii) to present a multidisciplinary perspective about the effects of the yet lasting Corona pandemic effects on the patterns of remote working and consequently on coworking spaces.

Left to Their Own Devices Julie M. Albright, 2019 Digital natives are hacking the American Dream Young people brought up with the Internet smartphones and social media are quickly rendering old habits and norms a distant memory creating the greatest generation gap in history In this eye opening book digital sociologist Julie M Albright looks at our device obsessed society and the many ways in which the post World War II American Dream is waning for the Millennial generation Albright notes that in the former age of traditional media dominated by three major TV networks and the national print media values were more harmonized and time synchronized Today with a deluge of information available 24 7 we are experiencing a sort of digital tribalism with people coalescing inside of increasingly fragmented informational echo chambers Digital media allows bad actors to enlarge the rifts between these siloed tribes in divide and conquer fashion frothing up fears by propagating fake news and fake people online What are other effects of hyper connectivity coupled with disconnection from stabilizing social structures Albright sees both positives and negatives On the one hand mobile connectivity has given digital nomads the unprecedented opportunity to work or live anywhere On the other hand new threats are emerging including cyberbullying and the ability to radicalize marginalized youth decreased physical exercise increased isolation anxiety and loneliness ephemeral relationships fragmented attention spans lack of participation in community activities and the political process and detachment from the calm of nature or the refuge of religion In this time of rapid global technologically driven change this book offers fresh insights into the effects of always on devices on the family community business and society at large
