States In Evolution:

Evolution, Creationism, and the Battle to Control America's Classrooms Michael Berkman, Eric Plutzer, 2010-09-20 Who should decide what children are taught in school This question lies at the heart of the evolution creation wars that have become a regular feature of the US political landscape Ever since the 1925 Scopes monkey trial many have argued that the people should decide by majority rule and through political institutions others variously point to the federal courts educational experts or scientists as the ideal arbiter Berkman and Plutzer illuminate who really controls the nation s classrooms Based on their innovative survey of 926 high school biology teachers they show that the real power lies with individual educators who make critical decisions in their own classrooms Broad teacher discretion sometimes leads to excellent instruction in evolution But the authors also find evidence of strong creationist tendencies in America s public high schools More generally they find evidence of a systematic undermining of science and the scientific method in many classrooms STATES IN EVOLUTION G. Bayesian Data Analysis for the Behavioral and Neural Sciences Todd E. Hudson,2021-06-24 This textbook bypasses the need for advanced mathematics by providing in text computer code allowing students to explore Bayesian data analysis without the calculus background normally considered a prerequisite for this material Now students can use the best methods without needing advanced mathematical techniques This approach goes beyond frequentist concepts of p values and null hypothesis testing using the full power of modern probability theory to solve real world problems The book offers a fully self contained course which demonstrates analysis techniques throughout with worked examples crafted specifically for students in the behavioral and neural sciences The book presents two general algorithms that help students solve the measurement and model selection also called hypothesis testing problems most frequently encountered in real world applications
