The Newcomers:

The Newcomers Helen Thorpe, 2017-11-14 From the award winning author of Soldier Girls and Just Like Us an extraordinary The Denver Post account of refugee teenagers at a Denver public high school and their compassionate teacher and a reminder that in an era of nativism some Americans are still breaking down walls and nurturing the seeds of the great American experiment The New York Times Book Review The Newcomers follows the lives of twenty two immigrant teenagers throughout the course of the 2015-2016 school year as they land at South High School in Denver Colorado These newcomers from fourteen to nineteen years old come from nations convulsed by drought or famine or war Many come directly from refugee camps after experiencing dire forms of cataclysm Some arrive alone having left or lost every other member of their original family At the center of their story is Mr Williams their dedicated and endlessly resourceful teacher of English Language Acquisition If Mr Williams does his job right the newcomers will leave his class at the end of the school year with basic English skills and new confidence their foundation for becoming Americans and finding a place in their new home Ultimately The Newcomers reads more like an anthropologist's notebook than a work of reportage Helen Thorpe not only observes she chips in her two cents and participates Like her we're moved and agitated by this story of refugee teenagers Donald Trump's gross slander of refugees and immigrants is countered on every page by the evidence of these students' lives and characters Los Angeles Review of Books With the US at a political crossroads around questions of immigration multiculturalism and America's role on the global stage Thorpe presents a fresh and nuanced perspective The Newcomers is not only an intimate look at lives immigrant teens live but it is a primer on the art and science of new language acquisition and a portrait of ongoing and emerging global horrors and the human fallout that arrives on our shores USA TODAY The Newcomers François Eugene De Villiers, 1951 *WILLIAM NEWCOMER V GERALD W.
