The Churches of Rome, 1527-1870 Michael Erwee,2014 The churches of Rome constitute arguably the most important manifestations of art and architecture in the Western world This book is a detailed description of 251 churches in Rome and the Vatican City built or decorated between 1527 and 1870 and is based on extensive research in state church and private archives as well as an exhaustive survey of modern and historical bibliographical sources Its aim is to provide a more complete picture of the construction and decoration of these churches than previously known This entails not only providing the names of the architects who designed the churches but also the names of the masons muratori and stone cutters scalpellini who built the churches and whose skills were essential for realising the architect s plans This depth of information is carried through to the interior decorations The interior of each church is then described in depth on a chapel by chapel basis and includes stucco work marble revetment monuments metal work fresco and painted decorations and altarpieces For each church a brief historical introduction is given and a general bibliography supplied Archival research has brought to light a great number of works of art whose authorship and or dates have hitherto been unknown including works by well known artists but also many that are unknown to scholars A great number of works of art whose authorship has hitherto been unknown are published in this volume for the first time An alphabetic index of artists consisting of over two thousand names is supplied and includes the churches where their works are to be found and accurate biographical information for each artist In addition there is an index of patrons and a street and rione index Also provided are the names and contact details of the archives consulted in researching this book The book is intended to be used as a reference and resource book as well as to be used by visitors to these churches It is lavishly illustrated with photographs Michael Erwee was born in Zambia He received his doctorate from the University of Sydney and was awarded an Alexander von Humboldt post doctorate scholarship from the German Government At present he is an independent researcher

The Church and the Churches G. R. Evans, 2002-04-04 Individual churches today have a lively ecumenical consciousness but they often express anxieties about what will become of them in a future united Church Questions are being asked about the goal of such unity In this book G R Evans asks what we mean by a church and how different Christian bodies have understood the way a church is related to the Church She surveys the nature of unity and what the fullness of the communion being reached for might consist of the place of diversity of faith and order in a united Church or ways in which there can go on being many churches in one Church and how they might be related to it and questions about the common structures one Church would need and the way in which it could come to think and act as a single body of Christ The book concludes with a discussion of the concept of communion which now looks very hopeful ecumenically as a guide to the way forward

Everyman's Library Ernest Rhys ,1927 The Church in the Latin Fathers James K. Lee,2020-02-06 What is the church What does it mean to be a member of the church This book examines how the earliest Christian theologians in the Latin West understood the nature ends and boundaries of the church By analyzing the thought and practices of figures such as Tertullian of Carthage Cyprian of Carthage Augustine of Hippo and Pope Leo the Great James K Lee shows how early Latin theologians forged distinctive views of the church as one holy catholic and apostolic Lee argues that according to the Latin fathers the church was one complex reality with visible and invisible aspects that could be distinguished but not separated God could work outside of the church s visible bounds yet all who were saved were joined to the church s invisible bond of charity The church s unity was found in charity and for the early Latin fathers there was no salvation outside of the church In addition Lee demonstrates the trajectory from an exclusivist ecclesiology to a more inclusive understanding of church membership in the development of Latin ecclesiology over the course of the first five centuries of Christianity The Independent ,1906 A Comparative View of the Churches of England and Rome Herbert Marsh,1816 The Anglican Brief Against Roman Claims Thomas Moore,Arthur Brinckman,1895
