The City Within:

RBAN CORPORIS ¥ THE CITY WITHIN Mickeal Milocco Borlini, Lelio di Loreto, 2019-01-28 This pamphlet brings together the contributions of architects, researchers, and artists from all over the world. The common ground of discussion is the city analyzed in its less explored folds, becoming the ground for experimentation and research. These materials together do not want to give solutions but they want to ask new questions, being conscious that curiosity remains necessary for any kind of progress.

The City Within Samina Quraeshi, 1988 Writing the City in British Asian Diasporas Sean McLoughlin, William Gould, Ananya Jahanara Kabir, Emma Tomalin, 2014-07-11 In 1962 the Commonwealth Immigrants Act hastened the process of South Asian migration to postcolonial Britain. Half a decade later now is an opportune moment to revisit the accumulated writing about the diasporas formed through subsequent settlement and to probe the ways in which the South Asian diaspora can be re-conceptualised. Writing the City in British Asian Diasporas takes a fresh look at such matters and will have multi-disciplinary resonance worldwide. The meaning and importance of local, multi-local, and trans-local dynamics is explored through a devolved and regionally accented comparison of five British Asian cities: Bradford, the East End of London, Manchester, Leicester, and Birmingham. Analysing the writing of these differently configured cities since the 1960s, its main focus is the significant discrepancies in representation between differently positioned texts reflecting both dominant institutional discourses and everyday lived experiences of a locality. Part I offers a comprehensive yet still highly contested reading of each city's archives. Part II examines how the arts and humanities fields of History, Religion, Gender, and Literary Cultural Studies have all written British Asian diasporas and how their perspectives might complement the better established agendas of the social sciences. Providing an innovative analysis of South Asian communities and their multi-local identities in Britain today, this interdisciplinary book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian Studies, Migration, Ethnic and Diaspora Studies, as well as Sociology, Anthropology, and Geography.

Food and the City in Europe since 1800 Peter Lummel, 2016-04-15 This fascinating volume examines the impact that rapid urbanization has had upon diets and food systems throughout Western Europe over the past two centuries. Bringing together studies from across the continent, it stresses the fundamental links between key changes in European social history and food systems, food cultures, and food politics. Contributors respond to a number of important questions, including when and how did local food production cease to be sufficient for the city and when did improved transport conditions and liberal commercial relations replace local by supra-regional food supplies? How far did the food industry contribute to improved living conditions in cities? What influence did urban consumers have? Food and the City in Europe since 1800 also examines issues of food hygiene and health impacts in cities, looks at various food innovations, and how new foods often first gained acceptance in cities, and explores how eating fashions have changed over the centuries.
