Edited by Evelyn Ann Masi Ralph Barton Perry, 1956 The Humanity of Jesus Christ: Wholly God, Holy Man R. Alan Woods, 2012-12-27 Twenty years in the making The Humanity of Jesus Christ by R Alan Woods is a doctoral dissertation on the Christology of Jesus towards a view of the divine nature of his humanity The God man Jesus as the ultimate natural iconic expression of Jehovah came into time and space unto us as a human being Although much has been written of the high Christology of Christ few have dared to endeavor themselves to the task of articulating a view of Jesus as it relates to the aspects of his human nature This book attempts to do just that Jesus is God is the unified field theory of Christianity R Alan Woods 1992 Unity, 1907 No man in alien John Robert Nelson, 1971 The Theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer John D. Godsey, 2015-12-22 Godsey s seminal study is the first dissertation to be written on Dietrich Bonhoeffer s theology It first appeared in 1960 when Bonhoeffer s name was relatively new in English language circles This work which surveyed the entire Bonhoeffer corpus available at the time quickly became a standard text that laid the groundwork for Bonhoeffer studies thereafter Godsey explores Bonhoeffer s life and the key themes of his Christocentric theology providing an introduction to mid century Protestant theology and showing how Bonhoeffer s theology can serve as a resource for those who seek to engage theology with the world In the intervening years since its publication Bonhoeffer scholarship has progressed but much of what we think about Bonhoeffer s theology can be found in the pages of this work Bonhoeffer s life and work bear witness to the fact that the church cannot live on cheap grace but only on the present Christ The Redemption of Man David Worthington Simon, 1889 Early Scholastic Christology 1050-1250 Richard Cross, 2024-09-16 This book traces developments in Christology and specifically the metaphysics of the union of divine and human natures in one person from 1050 the age of Anselm of Canterbury to 1250 the age of Albert the Great During the first part of the period the key issue is the conflict between Augustine s homo assumptus assumed man Christology defended by the Victorines and that of Boethius s Chalcedonian Christology defended by Gilbert of Poitiers sometimes known as the subsistence theory By 1180 the latter of these was almost universally accepted A third view apparently accepted by Peter Lombard among others according to which it is not true that Christ as man is something the non aliquid Christology was condemned in 1177 The second part of the book traces the way in which theologians attempted to develop the presentation of Conciliar Christology by working out inchoate solutions to some of the metaphysical questions that the issue raises what is the nature of the hypostatic union between the two natures or the human nature and the divine person is it something created or something uncreated And given that the human nature is a particular substance what prevents it from being a person Theologians used insights from both of the rejected theories the homo assumptus Christology and the non aliquid Christology in attempting to answer these issues The early thirteenth century saw both the founding of the universities of Paris and Oxford and the founding of the Franciscan and Dominican orders The book explores the impact of these religious identities on the formation of Christological teaching
