

Main Ideas and Supporting Details Practice

A: Directions: The following selection has a main idea that may appear at any place within the paragraph. Identify the topic and the main idea of the paragraph by filling in the correct sentence number in the space provided.

1) In the South, the Civil War destroyed half the region's farm equipment and killed one-third of its draft animals. 2) The death of slavery also ended the plantation system. 3) The number of farms doubled from 1850 to 1880, but the number of landowners remained the same. 4) The size of the average farm dropped by more than half, as sharecropping and tenancy rose. 5) A shortage of cash forced Southern farmers to borrow against future crops. 6) Crop liens and high credit costs kept a lot of black and white farmers trapped in a cycle of debt and poverty. 7) So at the very time the rest of the economy was consolidating after the Civil War, Southern agriculture was marching off in the opposite, less efficient direction.

1. What is the topic in this passage? Southern Agriculture
2. Which sentence is the main idea of the passage? 1/2?

B: Directions: Complete the outline of the following textbook passage by adding the main idea and the missing major or minor details.

1) There are a few major reasons for family violence. 2) One is stress, which is highest among the urban poor, families with a jobless husband, and those with four to six children. 3) Stress by itself, however, does not necessarily cause violence. 4) Another important factor is "a culturally recognized script" for violent behavior under stress in U.S. society. 5) The violence on television, corporal punishment in schools, and the death penalty, for example, convey the idea that violence is an acceptable solution to problems. 6) Research suggests yet one more reason for family violence: the tendency for marital violence is transmitted from one generation to another. 7) It has been found that most of the violent individuals have, as children, seen their parents hit each other.

Example: Main Idea: Generational Transfer of Violence
1) a. parents hit each other
