The Intensity Of God:

The Intensity of God Essie Temple Backus, 2001      Hermeneutics and the Authority of Scripture Alan H Cadwallader, 2012-09-30 The question of hermeneutics now dominates all disciplines of human knowledge and its construction It has moved from a concentration on how to apply the results of research knowledge to considerations of the frameworks by which we conduct research as a meaningful exercise The study of the Bible is not exempt from these developments The essays in this collection amply testify to the breadth of frameworks that are now being applied to the Bible and the development of ethical awareness in the construction of knowledge The reader will find engagements with the Bible informed by developments in science law ecology feminism and linguistics Key ethical issues about violence fundamentalism anti semitism and patriarchy are directly addressed as inextricably involved in the interpretation of the Bible on the understanding that both Bible and interpreter must be responsible and accountable in today's world Critical analysis of the Bible is no different even when there is a pre disposition or confessional commitment to treat the bible as sacred scripture Biblical research is inextricably affected by those epistemologies and ethical sensitivities that inform understanding and the search for meaning in our contemporary world      The Revelation of God William John Sparrow-Simpson, 1925

Providence Made Flesh Terry J. Wright, 2009-11-01 Traditional discussions of the Christian doctrine of providence often center on the relation between divine agency and human freedom seeking to offer an account of the extent to which a person is free before God the first cause of all things Terry J Wright argues that such riddles of causation cannot determine the content of providence and suggests a unique and alternative framework that depicts God's activity in terms of divine faithfulness to that which God has made Providence is not God as first cause acting through creaturely secondary causation rather providence is God's sovereign mediation of the divine presence across the whole world achieved through creaturely faithfulness made possible and guaranteed by his own faithful action in Jesus Christ      The Suffering of God, 1984-10-01 In this comprehensive and thought provoking study Terence Fretheim focuses on the theme of divine suffering an aspect of our understanding of God which both the church and scholarship have neglected Maintaining that metaphors matter Fretheim carefully examines the ruling and anthropomorphic metaphors of the Old Testament and discusses them in the context of current biblical theological scholarship His aim is to broaden our understanding of the God of the Old Testament by showing that suffering belongs to the person and purpose of God      The End of Evil Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki, 2005-06-16 The topic of evil and redemption has been at the center of the Western tradition since the beginning of the Christian era In The End of Evil Suchocki explores the source and end of evil in the thought of Augustine Leibniz Kant Schleiermacher Hegel and Nietzsche Whitehead's philosophy is used as a creative response to the problems and possibilities raised in these earlier developments      God, the Creator and Lord of All Samuel Harris, 1896      The Power of Saving Wisdom Cornelis Bennema, 2008-01-01 Cornelis Bennema explains the role of the Spirit in salvation according to John's Gospel against the background of intertestamental Jewish wisdom literature He comes to the conclusion that the salvific function of the Spirit is that of a cognitive agent who through the mediation of life giving wisdom creates and sustains a saving relationship between the believer and the Father and Son Studies in God's Methods of Training Workers Howard Agnew Johnston,1900
