The New Poetic:

New Poetic C.K. Stead,2005-03-01 Reading T S Eliot and reading about T S Eliot were equally formative experiences for my generation One of the books about him which greatly appealed to me when I first read it was The New Poetic by the New Zealand poet and critic C K Stead Seamus Heaney The Government of the Tongue 1986 The New Poetic Christian Karlson Stead,1966 The New Poetic Christian Karlson Stead,1975 The new poetic : Yeats to Eliot Christian K. Stead,1975 The New Poetries Donald Wesling,1985 This penetrating analysis of the prosody of modern poetry traces the growth of sprang rhythm free verse and the prose poem out of traditional metered poetry and examines the multiplicity of ways in which modern poetry innovatively employs the complex logical and grammatical structures of language to create poetic style and to distinguish itself from ordinary discourse 21st-Century Modernism Majorie Perloff,2002-02-15 The more radical American poetries of recent decades are held to be a deviation from the true course of poetry Perloff argues that it is precisely these new poetic experiments that take up the avant garde project of the great early modernists

Anthologies of British Poetry Barbara Korte,Ralf Schneider,Stefanie Lethbridge,2000 From Tottel s Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web Correct English ,1921 Modern Arabic poetry, 1800-1970 Moreh,2023-09-20 Arabic literature is noted for its tradition conscious consistency and sophistication In the classical period poetry and prose reached a high level of refinement and attained standards which are still being applied in the modern Arab world today The literature of the modern post classical period is no less sophisticated being a vibrant and flourishing expression of the continued Arabic tradition The series Studies in Arabic Literature Supplements to the Journal of Arabic Literature founded in 1971 is concerned with all kinds of literary expression in Arabic including the oral and vernacular traditions of both the modern and the classical periods Studies in the series can be literary historical analytical or comparative in nature and can treat of individual works authors and genres as well as literary traditions in a wider context Studies dealing with the social political and philosophical backgrounds of Arabic literature are particularly welcome in the series The series comprises monographs thematic collections of articles handbooks textual editions and annotated translations Text editions are as a rule accompanied by a translation on facing pages both text editions and translations should include comprehensive critical introductions which give a full and proper appreciation of the text or texts in question

The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei Tian Jin,2020-10-06 This book examines the unique poetics of Shao Xunmei 1906 1968 a Chinese poet who has long been marginalized by contemporary criticism Shao aspires to reach the condition of music in poetry which bears a resemblance to three Anglophone writers whom he applauds Algernon Charles Swinburne Edith Sitwell and George Augustus Moore The Condition of Music and Anglophone Influences in the Poetry of Shao Xunmei investigates how these three writers influenced Shao and how this inspiration helped shape his idea of the condition of music in poetry In the scope of world literature this book aims to fill a small but important puzzle piece in the global network of literary influence In a world where cultural exchanges have become increasingly frequent and convenient and at a time when counter globalization seems to burgeon into a hazardous trend it is beneficial to look back to the 1920s 1930s a time that is as equally tumultuous as today to examine the global influence network that has taken us where we are and to understand that in the dynamic of literary influence no single piece of literature can have its significance alone This groundbreaking book will benefit the scholarship of Shao and contribute to the relevant research in Chinese studies and word and music studies Therefore it will be of great use and interest to researchers of comparative literature Chinese literature and world literature as well as scholars of word and music studies Poetry

Harriet Monroe,1925 The Columbia Granger's Guide to Poetry Anthologies William A. Katz,Linda Sternberg Katz,Esther Crain,1994 Reference guide to poetry anthologies with descriptions and evaluations of each anthology A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E. Chinitz,Gail McDonald,2014-06-23 A COMPANION TO MODERNIST POETRY A Companion to Modernist Poetry A Companion to Modernist Poetry presents contemporary approaches to modernist poetry in a uniquely in depth and accessible text The first section of the volume reflects the attention to historical and cultural context that has been especially fruitful in recent scholarship The second section focuses on various movements and groupings of poets placing writers in literary history and indicating the currents and countercurrents whose interaction generated the category of modernism as it is now broadly conceived The third section traces the arcs of twenty one poets careers illustrated by analyses of key works The Companion thus offers breadth in its presentation of historical and literary contexts and depth in its attention to individual poets it brings recent scholarship to bear on the subject of modernist poetry while also providing guidance on poets who are historically important and who are likely to appear on syllabi and to attract critical interest for many years to come Edited by two highly respected and notable critics in the field A Companion to Modernist Poetry boasts a varied list of contributors who have produced an intense focused study of modernist poetry The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne Wintch Churchill,2006 Others an important and neglected little magazine finally receives the attention it deserves in Churchill s superbly crafted study In Churchill s discussions of

Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams among others Others serves as a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism This book is an important contribution to the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory and cultural studies The Failure of Poetry, the Promise of Language Laura (Riding) Jackson,2007 Brings together four decades of largely unpublished work by Jackson exploring the rationale for her renunciation of poetry in 1941 after two decades as a poet Handbook and proceedings of the annual meeting California Library Association,1918 The Poetry Journal Richard Montague Hunt,Edmund Randolph Brown,1916 Poems Lydia Noble,1930 The Bookman ,1919 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,1886
