The Romantic Will:

Maladies of the Will Jennifer L. Fleissner, 2022-12-16 An examination of the nineteenth century American novel that argues for a new genealogy of the concept of the will What if the modern person were defined not by reason or sentiment as Enlightenment thinkers hoped but by will Western modernity rests on the ideal of the autonomous subject charting a path toward self determination Yet novelists have portrayed the will as prone to insufficiency or excess from indecision to obsession wild impulse to melancholic inertia Jennifer Fleissner s ambitious book shows how the novel s attention to the will s maladies enables an ongoing interrogation of modern premises from within Maladies of the Will reveals the nineteenth century American novel s relation to a wide ranging philosophical tradition highly relevant to our own tumultuous present In works from Moby Dick and The Scarlet Letter to Elizabeth Stoddard s The Morgesons and Charles W Chesnutt s The Marrow of Tradition the will s grandeur and its perversity emerge as it alternately aligns itself with and pits itself against a bigger Will whether of God the state society history or life itself Today when invocations of autonomy appear beside the medicalization of many behaviors and democracy s tenet of popular will has come into doubt Maladies of the Will provides a map to how we got here and how we might think these vital dilemmas anew

Author Bio Christopher Alan Anderson 1950 received the basis of his education from the University of Science and Philosophy Swannanoa Waynesboro Virginia He resides in the transcendental romantic tradition that vein of spiritual creativity of the philosopher and poet His quest has been to define and express an eternal romantic reality from which a man and a woman could together stand in their difference and create a living universe of procreative love Mr Anderson began these writings in 1971 The first writings were published in 1985 On a personal note when Mr Anderson was asked to describe the writings and what he felt their message was he responded Spiritual procreation Mankind has yet to distinguish the two sexes on the spiritual level In this failure lies the root of our problems and why we cannot yet touch the eternal together The message of man and woman balance brings each of us together in love with our eternal other half right now
