Towards Herodiade:

Towards Hérodiade Alan Rowland Chisholm,1979 Towards "Hérodiade" A. R. Chisholm,1979 Hérodiade Jules Massenet,1922 Mallarme's Sunset Barnaby Norman,2017-07-05 The writings of the great Symbolist poet Stéphane Mallarme 1842 1898 were to become uniquely influential in twentieth century literary criticism For critics and philosophers such as Maurice Blanchot and Jacques Derrida Mallarme s name came to represent a rupture in literary history and an opening of literature onto a radically new kind of writing Through close readings of key works Norman retraces Mallarme s trajectory as a poet showing in particular how he positioned his work in relation to Hegel s Aesthetics Analysing the motif of the sunset Norman argues that Mallarme situated his work at the conclusion of the history of art in Hegelian terms and it is this that made him so interesting for Blanchot and Derrida Their readings born of their wish to subvert Hegel s totalizing impulse give rise to an entirely new view of works now almost universally seen as masterpieces Stéphane Mallarmé Roger Pearson,2010-05-15 This concise biography of Stéphane Mallarmé 1842-98 blends an account of the poet s life with a detailed analysis of his evolving poetic theory and practice A poet on this earth must be uniquely a poet he declared at the age of twenty two but wh

Intersections in Language Planning and Policy Jean Fornasiero,Sarah M. A. Reed,Rob Amery,Eric Bouvet,Kayoko Enomoto,Hui Ling Xu,2020-09-28 This volume encompasses the range of issues encountered by language scholars who teach and research in departments of languages and cultures within the higher education system predominantly in Australia but touching other universities worldwide Related studies on language planning methodology or pedagogy have focused on one or more of these same issues but rarely on their totality Intersections as a metaphor running discreetly through the essays in this volume connects them all to a lived reality The field of languages and cultures as it is practised and reflected upon in Australian universities is essentially an interdisciplinary and interconnecting space one in which linguistic and disciplinary diversities meet and join forces rather than collide or disperse along different pathways The international and local studies featured here focus on language planning new pedagogies and language reclamation and link to meeting points and commonalities They show that language scholars are increasingly finding themselves on common ground as they tackle issues of policy and practice affecting their field whether within their institutions within the tertiary system or within the framework of government policy Hérodiade Jules Massenet,1988 A.U.M.L.A. ,1960 Around Proust Richard E. Goodkin,1991-06-05 A study in obsession Marcel Proust s A la recherche du temps perdu is seemingly a self sufficient universe of remarkable internal consistency and yet is full of complex gargantuan digressions Richard Goodkin follows the dual spirit of the novel through highly suggestive readings of the work in its interactions with music psychoanalysis philosophy and cinema and such literary genres as epic lyric poetry and tragedy In exploring this fascinating intertextual network Goodkin reveals some of Proust s less obvious creative sources and considers his influence on later art forms The artistic and intellectual entities examined in relation to Proust s novel are extremely diverse coming from periods

ranging from antiquity Homer Zeno of Elea to the 1950s Hitchcock and belonging to the cultures of the Greek French German and English speaking worlds In spite of this variety of form and perspective all of these analyses share a common methodology that of digressive reading They explore Proust s novel not only in light of such famous passages as those of the madeleine and the good night kiss but also on the basis of seemingly small details that ultimately take us like the novel itself in unexpected directions
