Town Houses Architecture Showcase:

Town Houses Arian Mostaedi, 1999 As the frontier between between the street and intimacy of the interior the facade concentrates the most interesting aspects of the composition and construction of the project It is the face of the building a privileged view onto the exterior which connects with the neighboring buildings in order to weave the urban fabric and close the profile of the street Through recent examples by renowned international architects as Tadao Ando Klaus and Kaan Seth Stein Vincent van Duysen and Bjarme Mastenbroek among others this monographic work analyzes the difficulty of integrating new residential volumes into sites that are particularly narrow and difficult due to their situation and environment and making them connect with the context through exemplary technical and formal solutions The Modern Townhouse James Grayson Trulove, 2006-12-12 A townhouse is a residence that many find combines the best amenities of a single family home and a condominium By definition a townhouse is a home that is attached to adjacent houses which sits upon land that you own THE MODERN TOWNHOUSE will look at three types of town house projects that are increasingly popular in urban areas and close in suburbia 1 Renovation of existing town houses This is a particularly popular activity in older urban neighborhoods undergoing re gentrification Eighteenth and nineteenth century shells long in disrepair are being gutted and totally modernized 2 Vacant lots primarily in the inner cities but also in close in suburban neighborhoods where zoning restricts high rise housing are being filled with four or five town houses that are built perpendicular to the street usually in neighborhoods where the lot size would normally accommodate only one detached house This activity is in response to the increasing demand for urban housing where high land prices mandate multifamily housing solutions 3 New one off townhouses that are found primarily in wealthier neighborhoods where the high land cost can be recovered with a single luxury town home The book will be divided into these three categories and feature project from around the country including Baltimore San Diego San Francisco Miami and in smaller metropolitan areas Building ,1887 Onomastics in Contemporary Public Space Oliviu Felecan, 2013-08-19 Onomastics in Contemporary Public Space aims at analysing names and name giving from an intercultural perspective within the context of contemporary public space As was the case of Name and Naming Synchronic and Diachronic Perspectives Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2012 the geographical areas investigated in the studies included in this volume are very diverse referring not only to European cultural space but also to American Asian African and Australian contexts Being a collective work the book brings together 49 specialists from 18 countries namely Australia Belgium Finland France Germany Israel Italy Japan Malta the Netherlands Poland Romania Russia Singapore South Africa Spain the United Kingdom and the USA Thematically the volume is organised so that it may cover all the dimensions of public space as far as onomastics is concerned The specific areas studied are the theory of names names of public places linguistic landscapes names of public economic cultural religious and sports institutions names of business establishments religious institutions places of worship and cultural associations as well as names in journals and magazines names of objects entities resulting from various processes in public space names of foods drinks and food brands code names of collaborators in secret service organisations names in literature nicknames bynames pseudonyms in the world of politics high life art and sport names in virtual space and zonyms and miscellanea The originality and topicality of the subject lie in the multidisciplinary viewpoint adopted in the research in which onomastics merges with adjacent linguistic disciplines such as sociolinguistics psycholinguistics and pragmatics as well as other sciences such as history literature anthropology politics economy and religion
