Life is uncertain;
death is certain.

Uncertain Death:

Uncertain Death Hazel Holt, 1994 Epiestems of Death Pratham Parekh, 2017-01-01 Death and dying experiences are not common across human race because humans do not share common cultural heritage and physical environment The fact of death thus can be considered as socially constructed fact abounded by idiosyncratic religious beliefs and rituals existing within social life It is almost impossible to have common consensual understanding of death and dying This book tries to investigate various sources of knowledge about death in multiple disciplines from sociological lenses Death, Dying and Bereavement in a Changing World Alan R. Kemp, 2015-10-16 This title takes a comprehensive approach exploring the physical social psychological and spiritual dimensions of death dying and bereavement Through personal stories from real people Death Dying and Bereavement provides readers with a context for understanding their changing encounters with such difficult concepts Death in Documentaries Benjamin Bennett-Carpenter, 2017-11-13 Memento mori is a broad and understudied cultural phenomenon and experience The term memento mori is a Latin injunction that means remember mortality or more directly remember that you must die In art and cultural history memento mori appears widely especially in medieval folk culture and in the well known Dutch still life vanitas paintings of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Yet memento mori extends well beyond these points in art and cultural history In Death in Documentaries The Memento Mori Experience Benjamin Bennett Carpenter suggests that documentaries are an especially apt form of contemporary memento mori Bennett Carpenter shows that documentaries may offer composed transformative experiences in which a viewer may renew one's consciousness of mortality and thus renew one's life Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum, Christopher M. Moreman, 2024-03-28 The 13th edition of Death Society and Human Experience provides a panoramic overview of the ways that we are touched by death and dying both as individuals and as members of society A landmark text in the field the authors draw on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities including perspectives offered through history philosophy religion literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage and understanding of topics associated with the end of life and death and dying By approaching the subject from multiple angles the authors explain the various ways that individual cultural and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses Christopher M Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for two decades has updated this edition In addition to infusing his close areas of focus both in afterlife beliefs and experiences and how these might affect how people live their lives he's weaved in new coverage of current affairs including The impact of COVID 19 on experiences of death bereavement mourning and more Expanded legalization of physician assisted dying in the United States and several countries Changes in bereavement rituals and traditions stemming from technology use and social media With additional content and classroom extensions available online Death Society and Human Experience remains a thoughtful exploratory and impressively comprehensive overview for undergraduate and graduate courses in death dying and bereavement Frontier and Future Development of Information Technology in Medicine and Education Shaozi Li, Qun Jin, Xiaohong Jiang, James J. (Jong Hyuk) Park, 2013-12-05 IT changes everyday's life especially in education and medicine The goal of ITME 2013 is to further explore the theoretical and practical issues of IT in education and medicine It also aims to foster new ideas and collaboration between researchers and practitioners Kierkegaard and Death Patrick Stokes, Adam J. Buben, 2011-10-20 This impressive anthology succeeds admirably at demonstrating how the Kierkegaardian corpus presents a philosophy of finite existence Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews Few philosophers have devoted such sustained almost obsessive attention to the topic of death as Søren Kierkegaard Kierkegaard and Death brings together new work on Kierkegaard's multifaceted discussions of death and provides a thorough guide to the development in various texts and contexts of Kierkegaard's ideas concerning death Essays by an international group of scholars take up essential topics such as dying to the world living death immortality suicide mortality and subjectivity death and the meaning of life remembrance of the dead and the question of the afterlife While bringing Kierkegaard's philosophy of death into focus this volume connects Kierkegaard with important debates in contemporary philosophy Death, Society and Human Experience (1-download) Robert Kastenbaum, 2015-07-22 Providing an understanding of the relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society This book is intended to contribute to your understanding of your relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society Kastenbaum shows how individual and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Robert Kastenbaum is a renowned scholar who developed one of the world's first death education courses and introduced the first text for this market This landmark text draws on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities such as history religion philosophy literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage of understanding death and the dying process Learning Goals Upon completing this book readers should be able to Understand the relationship with death both as an individual and as a member of society See how social forces and events affect the length of our lives how we grieve and how we die Learn how dying people are perceived and treated in our society and what can be done to provide the best possible care Master an understanding of continuing developments and challenges to hospice palliative care Understand what is becoming of faith and doubt about an afterlife An Uncertain Death Laura Coburn, 1996-07-11 *Memorials of dead in the church & churchyard of ...
