Unorthodox Practices:

Unorthodox Practices Marissa Piesman,2005-10 Welcome to New York in the 1980s where the best thing about being obsessed with real estate is that you can count on it to arise in conversation about every ten minutes Nina Fischman mostly opts out of those conversations She s too busy running down to Housing Court on behalf of her poverty law clients and tracking down sales on sweaters that camouflage the hips But Nina s mother Ida has a nose for the market and that nose gets twitchy when old ladies in her neighborhood start dying leaving apartments that have miraculously escaped what New Yorkers delicately call the cockroach problem Someone s making a killing in real estate Middleton's Allergy: Principles and Practice E-Book N. Franklin Adkinson Jr.,2008-11-27 This best selling resource has a worldwide reputation as the leader in its field Focusing on human immunology and biology while also reporting on scientific experimentation and advancement it provides comprehensive coverage of state of the art basic science as well as authoritative guidance on the practical aspects of day to day diagnosis and management This new edition includes 700 full color illustrations and a new more accessible format to make finding information a snap for the busy practitioner And this Expert Consult Edition offers online access to the complete contents of the 2 volume set fully searchable and much more Includes a glossary of allergy and immunology for quick and easy reference Contains keypoints and clinical pearls highlighted to find important information quickly links to useful online resources both for you and for your patients Offers contributions from hundreds of international authorities for world class expertise in overcoming any clinical challenge Contains 400 new illustrations 700 in all to better illustrate complex immunology Covers the very latest in the field including hot topics such as food allergy and immunotherapy Includes the latest guidelines from The National Asthma Education and Prevention Program NAEPP Utilizes a new more user friendly full color format for easier reference Includes online access to the entire contents of the book fully searchable with links to MEDLINE abstracts for all of the references Science Has No Sex Arleen Marcia Tuchman,2006-12-08 German born Marie Zakrzewska 1829 1902 was one of the most prominent female physicians of nineteenth century America Best known for creating a modern hospital and medical education program for women Zakrzewska battled against the gendering of science and the restrictive definitions of her sex In Science Has No Sex Arleen Tuchman examines the life and work of a woman who continues to challenge historians of gender to this day At a time when most women physicians laid claim to female qualities of care and nurturance to justify their professional choice Zakrzewska insisted that all physicians regardless of gender should depend upon the rational faculties developed through training in the natural sciences She viewed science as a democratizing tool anyone could master science she asserted and therefore the doors to the elite profession of medicine should be opened to all Shedding light on the changes that radically transformed medicine in the late nineteenth century Tuchman s analysis also demonstrates how Zakrzewska s activism is important to the ongoing debate over the relationship between science and sex Becoming a Witch Andrea Maraschi,Angelica Aurora Montanari,2023-12-31 This book is not about witches First of all because it focuses on the Middle Ages And despite common misconceptions among the general public the figure of the witch as a woman who seals a pact with the Devil is not a medieval invention Becoming a Witch explores the feminization of what civil and religious authorities defined as magic in medieval times It looks into the complex connections between women the natural the supernatural and the tragedy of existence The chapters in this book span from the far north of Europe to the Mediterranean area and investigate topics such as divination erotic magic flying and dancing bodies cannibalism milk stealing witchcraft the circulation of superstitious knowledge among women Otherness agency and last but not least contemporary representations of the witch in books TV series and cinema productions From whom did women learn their beliefs and remedies Were they really in contact with demons Were they a social threat And most importantly should men fear and stop them

Incomprehensible! Wendy Wagner,Will Walker,2019-07-11 Explains how the law often encourages actors to be incomprehensible in ways that actually undermine the purpose of the laws themselves

Popular Religion in Russia Stella Rock,2007-09-10 This book dispels the widely held view that paganism survived in Russia alongside Orthodox Christianity demonstrating that double belief dvoeverie is in fact an academic myth Scholars citing the medieval origins of the term have often portrayed Russian Christianity as uniquely muddled by paganism with double believing Christians consciously or unconsciously preserving pagan traditions even into the twentieth century This volume shows how the concept of dvoeverie arose with nineteenth century scholars obsessed with the Russian folk and was perpetuated as a propaganda tool in the Soviet period colouring our perception of both popular faith in Russian and medieval Russian culture for over a century It surveys the wide variety of uses of the term from the eleventh to the seventeenth century and contrasts them to its use in modern historiography concluding that our modern interpretation of dvoeverie would not have been recognized by medieval clerics and that double belief is a modern academic construct Furthermore it offers a brief foray into medieval Orthodoxy via the mind of the believer through the language and literature of the period
