myself to do I didn't deserve it Just focus on the job protect him I told myself that time and time again But he quickly became more than a job and though I knew he wasn't ready for what I wanted to give him I was willing to take what I could I was there to protect him There was one little problem though I had to keep him in the dark about how serious the threat really was And when the danger started closing in I feared I might not be able to save him
