Women All On Fire:

Women All on Fire Alison Plowden, 2012 A Handbook on Women in Firefighting: The Changing Face of the Fire Service , Like Fire Theodore Schwartz, Michael French Smith, 2021-07-01 Like Fire chronicles an indigenous movement for radical change in Papua New Guinea from 1946 to the present. The movement's founder Paliu Maloat promoted a program for step by step social change in which many of his followers also found hope for a miraculous millenarian transformation. Drawing on data collected over several decades Theodore Schwartz and Michael French Smith describe the movement's history Paliu's transformation from secular reformer and politician to Melanesian Jesus and the development of the current incarnation of the movement as Wind Nation a fully millenarian endeavour. Their analysis casts doubt on common ways of understanding a characteristically Melanesian form of millenarianism the cargo cult and questions widely accepted ways of interpreting millenarianism in general. They show that to understand the human proclivity for millenarianism we must scrutinise more closely two near universal human tendencies: difficulty accepting the role of chance or impersonal forces in shaping events that is the tendency to personify causation and a tendency to imagine that one or one's group is the focus of the malign or benign attention of purposeful entities from the local to the cosmic. Schwartz and Smith discuss the prevalence of millenarianism and warn against romanticising it because the millenarian mind can subvert rationality and nourish rage and fear even as it seeks transcendence. Like Fire consummates remarkable longitudinal ethnographic research on the Paliu Movement in Papua New Guinea pursued from the 1950s into the 1990s by Theodore Schwartz with Michael French Smith as his sometime assistant and updated by Smith in 2015. The theoretical arguments are highly provocative and the book is well written and fascinating throughout. Like Fire poses important questions about the driving forces and contours of Pacific Island history and the place in it of cargo cults and other millenarian movements. Aletta Biersack Professor Emerita University of Oregon. Like Fire synthesises old but inaccessible and new material on an important and long lasting indigenous Melanesian movement while making extensive use of the wider literature on cargo cults and millenarianism. I find the theorising in this book both very original and an important contribution to the debates on Melanesian religion cargo cults and millenarianism more generally. As the authors state the topic of millenarianism has great relevance because of its ubiquity in the contemporary world. Ton Otto Professor of Anthropology Aarhus University Denmark and James Cook University Australia Many Women Strong: A Handbook for Women Firefighters , Fire Management Notes , 1977 Fire Service Ethics H. Scott Walker, 2018-11-14 Fire Service Ethics is the first textbook specifically developed to help fire service personnel deal with ethical dilemmas. Firefighters and fire service leaders will find benefit from this important tool to aid them in dealing with complex issues. No other profession places such a discretionary burden on its practitioners as the fire service. The military law enforcement the medical profession and legal profession all provide a robust set of ethical policies and guidelines to their members. Fire Service Ethics provides the foundation for creating ethical boundaries Fire Service Ethics meets and exceeds the course outcomes and course objectives for the National Fire Academy FESHE Model Curriculum Bachelor s Non Core course called Fire Service Ethics C0303 It is also well suited for fire officer and administration development programs Section 1 of the book is entitled Foundations Its four chapters are intended to provide the reader with the basic understanding of ethics necessary to master the material in the succeeding three sections Chapter 1 is recommended for all readers as it addresses the important questions of ethical relevance to the fire service Chapters 2 3 first as an abstract concept and then as it applies specifically to the fire service Section 2 is intended to serve dual purposes First it is designed to be included in an academic curriculum aimed at future firefighters Secondly Section 2 combined with Section 4 encompasses the majority of material appropriate for inclusion in fire service training programs Section 3 of the text is dedicated to Administrative Ethics The chapters within the section explore ethics issues faced by fire chiefs and senior administrative personnel Included within the section are chapters on the building and maintenance of an ethical work culture the ethical responsibilities associated with administration and finally ethics laws Section 3 combined with Sections 1 and 4 is especially appropriate for officer development programs and collegiate programs in fire administration Section 4 of the book is entitled Applied Ethics The three chapters within the section deal with the application of ethics on the personal and department level Included within the section are chapters on ethical decision making mechanisms by which unethical behavior is engaged and a review of current ethical issues affecting local fire departments Section 4 is universal in its application and should be used in all collegiate programs as well as in firefighter and fire officer training programs
