Technology And Global Competition:

Technology and Global Competition Dieter Ernst, David O'Connor, 1989 A conceptual and normative framework New technologies global competition and international technology diffusion New technologies and latecomer industrialisation key issues The challenge ahead for newly industrialising economies Growth patterns and industrialisation commonalities and diversity Forced industrial restructuring constraints and strategic options Emerging policy issues Global Competition and Technology Robert Pearce, 2016-07-27 Multinationals are increasingly taking internationalised approaches to the ways in which they generate new knowledge and develop innovative new products from it in the pursuit of global competitiveness These new perspectives in MNEs technological behaviour open up important additional possibilities for those countries that play host to operations of these companies This book analyses in detail the new dimensions in MNEs approach to global competitiveness and the role played in this by overseas R D units and discusses the implications of this for host countries growth and welfare Technology Flows and Global Competition Benjamin Gomes-Casseres, 1989 Global Competition United States. President's Commission on Industrial Competitiveness, 1985 Technology and Global Competition: the Challenge for Newly Industrialising Economies Ernst Dieter, O'Connor David, 1989 Technology Transfer in the Developing Countries Manas Chatterji, 2016-07-27 The objective of this book is to present the problems and possibilities of transferring technology from the developed countries to the developing countries to raise their standard of living It develops the conceptual issues legal ramifications empirical testing of mathematical models and case studies of different industries in many countries It contains articles by distinguished scholars in the field practitioners and government officials It is an important supplement to the hands on approach used by many private industries and national and international organizations The unique feature of this book is that it is multidisciplinary and that it has a balanced combination of abstract theoretical approaches and practical considerations Technology Transfer in International Business Tamir Agmon, Mary Ann Von Glinow, 1991-08-01 This important collection examines the means by which technological knowledge is transferred from countries that develop it to those who need it Written by well known authorities and derived from a conference held at the University of California and sponsored by IBEAR International Business Education Research Program the contributions focus on the transfer of technology from Western countries to Asian countries Global Economy, Global Technology, Global Corporations National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Office of International Affairs, Committee on Japan, 1998-05-17 Industrial Development, Technology Transfer, and Global Competition Pierre-Yves Donze, 2016-10-14 The phenomena of Japan emerging as one of the most competitive industrial nations in the twentieth century and the general shift of competitiveness to East Asia since the 1980s have been widely studied by many scholars from different fields of the social sciences Drawing on sources from Japanese Swiss and American archives the historical analysis of this book tackles a wide range of actors and sheds light on the various processes that enabled Japanese watch companies to transfer technology and expand commercially starting in the second half of the nineteenth century By exploring the case of the watch industry this book serves to establish a better understanding of the origins of the competitiveness of Japanese manufacturing and its evolution until its decline in the post bubble economy in the 1990s and 2000s Strategies for Technology-based Competition Albert N. Link, Gregory Tasse, 1987 Concept-Oriented Research and Development in Information Technology Kinji Mori, 2014-01-08 A pioneering concept oriented research and development approach improves business results in technology driven industries With contributions from IT systems and operations experts from around the globe this book sets forth a tested and proven concept oriented R D approach that far surpasses the results of conventional R D The authors explain how to create a clear concept then build upon that concept by developing a chain of technologies and target markets in order to create sustain and grow successful business operations Real world examples and case studies from IBM and Hitachi illustrate how the concept oriented approach can be applied to IT and other technology driven industries anywhere in the world Concept Oriented Research and Development in Information Technology sheds new light on the complex relationships between concept technology and market explaining how all of these elements are enhanced with a concept oriented R D approach Throughout the book readers will learn a variety of innovative perspectives and methods for concept creation technology innovation and market cultivation Part I Introduction makes the case for a paradigm shift in R D from a conventional approach to a concept oriented one Part II Concept Creation offers four perspectives on the application of the concept oriented approach Part III Fusion of Technologies illustrates the need to fuse technologies to accommodate rapidly changing and unpredictable demands on business infrastructure Part IV Globalization of Technologies explains why businesses need to diversify globally yet remain in tune with local markets Part V Conclusions and Future Directions explores the potential of the concept oriented approach to evolve with the changing needs of business and R D Concept Oriented Research and Development in Information Technology helps students and professionals in IT engineering systems and operations approach R D in new ways that lead to better technologies and better businesses

Global Competition by Small Technology-based Firms Benjamin Gomes-Casseres, Tomás O. Kohn, 1989 Technology and Global Competition OECD., Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 1989 International Competition in Advanced Technology National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Office of International Affairs, A Consensus Statement Prepared by the Panel on Advanced Technology Competition and the Industrialized Allies, 1983-02-01 should help mobilize Government support for the nation's slipping technological and international trade position Leonard Silk The New York Times A blue ribbon panel takes a critical look at the state of U S leadership in technological innovation and trade 1999 International Symposium on Technology and Society IEEE Society on Social Implications of Technology, 1999 The theme of the symposium is Women and Technology Historical Societal and Professional Perspectives The roles of women in technology are more diverse controversial and important today than ever before Since the 1950s women have tried to technologically empower themselves particularly by entering the engineering profession They have done so in great numbers although today it is glaringly obvious that women are still underrepresented in engineering Women in the field still face gender based obstacles expectations and biases despite decades of efforts to eradicate these problems These issues are addressed International Journal of Technology Management ,1999 Global Marketing Management Masaaki (Mike) Kotabe,Kristiaan Helsen,1998-01-23 Emphasising the multilateral global nature of marketing this book aims to provide the marketer with a better understanding of how the various functional areas interface with marketing Global Competition and Technology Robert Pearce,1997 Global Technology Transfer John Chumack,2002 Governments the world over fret continuously about the low level of transfer of technology especially within their own countries The general problem is military to industry although the variations are numerous Problems of presentation offering and support complicate an already byzantine world Yet somewhere within this dilemma lie the seeds of tomorrow s economic uptick Besides the nontrivial problems involved here the reluctance of the people having the technology to share it with someone who can profit from it stands out This book presents the issues and offers a comprehensive bibliography for easy access
