The Illusionless Man is an exploration sometimes comic sometimes serious into the process of disenchantment regarded with sympathy by this eminent poet philosopher of the psychoanalytic world In the first four Fantasies the illusions of love memories work and death are exposed while in the two concluding Meditations Wheelis writes intimately as a psychoanalyst about the illusions of his chosen profession Stimulating wise and elegant The Illusionless Man speaks as eloquently now as it did on its first publication in 1966 This is a beautifully written statement of a philosophy which will please and uplift both by its bittersweet aphoristic quality and the solidity of its message George Adelman Library Journal The Intellectual Species John Rodden, 2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of international intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens Psychoanalysis Jeffrey Berman, 2023-12-01 Psychoanalysis An Interdisciplinary Retrospective offers in depth discussions of and conversations with six psychoanalytic writers Christopher Bollas Nancy Chodorow Sander L Gilman Adam Phillips and Allen and Joan Wheelis All are genuinely interdisciplinary in their work bridging multiple cultural and professional positions but all are deeply rooted in the humanities They are all also highly controversial challenging and critiquing conventional psychoanalytic wisdom while also devoting themselves to expanding psychoanalytic knowledge Drawing on interviews as well as his own readings Jeffrey Berman examines the continuities and discontinuities in each writer s work while also exploring the interrelationships between psychoanalysis and the humanities The book ultimately offers a portrait of psychoanalysis as a work in progress a plurality of visions that might more aptly be termed psychoanalyses Fifty Years of the Research and theory of R.s. Lazarus Richard S. Lazarus, 2013-06-17 A collection of the articles written by the author throughout his extensive career this book achieves three goals First it reprints selected research and theory papers on stress and coping from the 1950s to the present produced by Lazarus under five rubrics his dissertation perennial epistemological issues including the revolt of the 1940s and 1950s his transition from laboratory to field research the clinical applications of stress and coping and expanding stress to the emotions Second it provides a running commentary on the origination of the issues discussed what was occurring in psychology when the work was done and where the work led in the present Third it integrates various themes about which psychologists debate vociferously often without recognizing the intellectual bases of these differences
