D Bruce Jr analyzes post Reconstruction and turn of the century black writing treating minor as well as major authors and considering a broad range of genres Bruce shows that black writers confronted the conditions of an increasingly racist society in almost every aspect of their work from their choice of subject matter to the way they drew their characters to the mood they portrayed At the same time these writers most of whom were members of a small but growing black professional class displayed a concern for middle class aspirations and values Bruce underscores the significance of discerning the tensions between these opposing forces in studying the literature of the time Bruce s attention to the body of work produced by minor writers most of whom have remained obscure to all but a few literary scholars and historians adds an important dimension to our understanding of African American history and literature His discussion of such better known writers as Charles W Chesnutt Paul Laurence Dunbar James Weldon Johnson and W E B Du Bois places them in a fuller literary context defining more clearly their significance as individuals Black American Writing from the Nadir is an insightful well focused work that will benefit social and cultural historians as well as students of literature Louisiana Sojourns Frank de Caro,2005-05-01 A sweeping collection of observations and episodes penned by visitors to Louisiana from the sixteenth century to the 1990s Louisiana Sojourns is much like the state itself a wonder to behold in its sum and in its particulars full of surprise and delight The seventy six pieces that Frank A de Caro has selected give readers a vivid sense of how Louisiana s unique blend of Old World South the exotic and quintessential America has exerted a pull and hold on travelers Included are writings by well known figures such as Mark Twain Teddy Roosevelt Kate Chopin John Steinbeck Frederick Law Olmsted Walker Percy William Faulkner Simone de Beauvoir Henry Miller John James Audubon Calvin Trillin Zora Neale Hurston A J Liebling William Least Heat Moon and Frederick Turner Dozens of other wayfarers are represented as well Art World Fred Wellington Ruckstull,1917 The South's Part in Mongrelizing the Nation Earnest Sevier Cox,1926 The Crisis ,1969
