The Roaring 80s:

The Roaring '80s Adam Smith,1988 A journey from Wall Street to the Pacific rim from Seventh Avenue to the Federal Reserve and from investment banking to the shrinking towns around our industries The Roaring '80s on Wall Street Ira U. Out of the Dog House Dick Portillo,Don Yaeger,2018-11-27 In 1963 Dick Portillo built a 6 x 12 trailer with no running water or bathroom and opened a simple hot dog stand in Villa Park Illinois He called it The Dog House More than 50 years and 50 locations later his namesake Portillo s restaurants are a Windy City institution famous for perfect Chicago style dogs In Out of the Dog House Portillo tells the incredible story of his life sharing the ingenuity and hard earned wisdom that went into building a beloved restaurant chain From a modest childhood as the son of Greek and Mexican immigrants to the core principles that became essential in growing a national business this is a singular at times surprising tale of how one man crafted his own American dream one hot dog at a time Cloud Computing Naresh Kumar Sehgal,Pramod Chandra P. Bhatt,2018-03-23 This book provides readers with an overview of Cloud Computing starting with historical background on mainframe computers and early networking protocols leading to current concerns such as hardware and systems security performance emerging areas of IoT Edge Computing etc Readers will benefit from the in depth discussion of cloud computing usage and the underlying architecture with focus on best practices for using a dynamic cloud infrastructure cloud operations management and cloud security The authors explain carefully the why s and how s of Cloud Computing so engineers will find this book and invaluable introduction to the topic Virtual Geography McKenzie Wark,1994-11-22 The author s capacity to grasp and interpret these world media events is astounding and her ability to provide insights into a world where unbounded information is circling the earth with the speed of light is startling Choice a wide ranging quirky and dextrous mix of description theory and analysis that documents the perils of the global telecommunications network Times Literary Supplement this is a stimulating even moving book dense with ideas and with many quotable lines The New Statesman Wark is one of the most original and interesting cultural critics writing today Lawrence Grossberg McKenzie Wark writes about the experience of everyday life under the impact of increasingly global media vectors We no longer have roots we have aeriels We no longer have origins we have terminals The Insatiability of Human Wants Regenia Gagnier,2000-12 What is the relationship between our conception of humans as producers or creators as consumers of taste and pleasure and as creators of value Combining cultural history economics and literary criticism Regenia Gagnier s new work traces the parallel development of economic and aesthetic theory offering a shrewd reading of humans as workers and wanters born of labor and desire The Insatiability of Human Wants begins during a key transitional moment in aesthetic and economic theory 1871 when both disciplines underwent a turn from production to consumption models In economics an emphasis on the theory of value and the social relations between land labor and capital gave way to more individualistic models of consumerism Similarly in aesthetics theories of artistic production or creativity soon bowed to models of taste pleasure and reception Using these developments as a point of departure Gagnier deftly traces the shift in Western thought from models of production to consumption From its exploration of early market logic and Kantian thought to its look at the aestheticization of homelessness and our own market boom The Insatiability of Human Wants invites us to contemplate alternative interpretations of economics aesthetics and history itself Collecting the Now Michael Maizels,2022-08-09 Collecting the Now offers a new in depth look at the economic forces and institutional actors that have shaped the outlines of postwar art history with a particular focus on American art 1960 1990 Working through four case studies Michael Maizels illuminates how a set of dealers and patrons conditioned the iconic developments of this period the profusions of pop art the quixotic impossibility of land art the dissemination of new media and the speculation fueled neo expressionist painting of the 1980s This book addresses a question of pivotal importance to a swath of art history that has already received substantial scholarly investigation We now have a clear nuanced understanding of why certain evolutions took place why pop artists exploded the delimited parameters of aesthetic modernism why land artists further strove against the object form itself and why artists returned to neo traditional painting in the 1980s But remarkably elided by extant scholarship has been the question of how How did conditions coalesce around pop so that its artists entered into museum collections and scholarly analyses at pace unprecedented in the prior history of art How when seeking to transcend the delimited gallery object were land artists able to create monumental and by extension monumentally expensive interventions in the extreme wilds of the Western deserts And how did the esoteric objects of media art come eventually to scholarly attention in the sustained absence of academic interest or a private market The answers to these questions lie in an exploration of the financial conditions and funding mechanisms through which these works were created advertised distributed and preserved Ronald Reagan and the Politics of Freedom Andrew E.
