those most closely involved Some have already passed on but this account has been written soon enough for many of the actors to be historians Future members of the College will be grateful to them for what they have written as well as for what they did as a remarkably determined and harmonious team Students of twentieth century medicine in this country will also be grateful for a first hand account of the development of an institution which has been closely associated with and partly responsible for important changes in medical care and education Those who read these pages may wonder how the builders of this young College could have found time to do much general practice They did The three editors of this history which covers 25 years and the general practitioner members of the Steering Committee all ran large practices in which they worked very hard throughout that time Most of their work for the College was done during off duty hours weekends and holidays The College could not have developed as it did had they not been personally concerned with the practical problems and needs of clinical medicine This is also true of many of the contributors It is impossible to mention everyone who deserves credit The editors hope that they may be forgiven for any serious omissions

Royal Scots In The Gulf Laurie Milner,1990-12-31 Insight into the unique atmosphere of a Scottish battalion during combat taking part in the Iraqi ground war facing many unknown and unknowable factors The brevity of the ground war in the Gulf is well known just 100 hours By the end of the war press reports of the massive numbers of Iraqi prisoners taken and equipment destroyed compared to our own losses suggested that it was a walkover In hindsight it would seem so however the experts not to mention the media s estimates of the Iraqi s strength and capabilities and the wild predictions of heavy casualties are decidedly at odds with the outcome This book tries to answer why In telling the story of The Royal Scots Battle Group Laurie Milner reveals the remarkable single mindedness and courage of the soldiers of Britain s present day Army in the face of a numerically superior well equipped and well dug in enemy whose level of resistance could not be accurately assessed While the pundits in Britain were judging our Army s likely performance on the peacetime training expediencies of BAOR The Royal Scots Britain s oldest infantry regiment were carefully preparing their vehicles weapons and soldiers for war The extent of their final preparations and potential is chilling It is little wonder
