

TO & TOWARDS

TO

We use TO to refer to our destination:

- Mary is going to the town hall.
- My parents drove to London after lunch.
- They needed something for dinner so they went to the supermarket.

TOWARDS

We use TOWARDS to refer to the direction, but not to our destination:

- Mary is going towards the town hall (but her final destination is the school).
- Walk towards the park and then turn right.

Towards is British English;
toward is American English.
