Un Melting Pot:

The Un-melting Pot John Brown,1970 Popular Culture Roger Clestin,Eliane Dalmolin,1997 The Cuban Condition Gustavo Pérez Firmat,2006-11-02 Firmat explores the process of assimilation or transculturation in the case of Cuba and proposes a new understanding of the issue of Cuban national identity through revisionary readings dating from the early decades of the twentieth century a time of intense self reflection in the nation s history He argues that Cuban identity is translational rather than foundational and that cuban a emerges from a nuanced self conscious recasting of foreign models

Particles at the Semantics/pragmatics Interface Maj-Britt Mosegaard Hansen,2008 This book elucidates the nature of the semantics pragmatics distinction in both synchrony and diachrony and proposes a definition of semantics and pragmatics that is orthogonal to the question of truth conditionality A corollary aim of the study is to propose an account of how and why erstwhile pragmatically determined elements of meaning may in the course of time become semanticized

International Perspectives on Cultural Parks ,1989 Monumental cares Mechtild Widrich,2023-01-31 Monumental cares rethinks monument debates site specificity and art activism in light of problems that strike us as monumental or overwhelming such as war migration and the climate crisis The book shows how artists address these issues from Chicago and Berlin to Oslo Bucharest and Hong Kong in media ranging from marble and glass to postcards graffiti and re enactment A multidirectional theory of site does justice to specific places but also to how far away audiences see them What emerges is a new ethics of care in public art combined with a passionate engagement with reality harking back to the realist aesthetics of the nineteenth century Familiar questions can be answered anew what to do with monuments particularly when they are the products of terror and require removal modification or recontextualisation And can art address the monumental concerns of our present

The Writing of Where Charles N. Lesh,2022-09-26 In The Writing of Where Charles Lesh examines how graffiti writers in Boston remake various spaces within and across the city The spaces readers will encounter in this book are not just meaningful venues of writing but also outcomes of writing itself social spaces not just where writing happens but created because writing happens Lesh contends that these graffiti spaces reinvent the writing landscape of the city and its public relationship with writing Each chapter introduces readers to different writing spaces from bold and broadly visible spots along the highway to bridge underpasses seldom seen by non writers from inconspicuous notebooks writers call bibles to freight yards and model trains from abandoned factories to benches where writers view trains Between each chapter readers will find community interludes responses to the preceding chapters from some of the graffiti writers who worked on this project By working closely with writers engaged in the production of these spaces as well as drawing on work invested in questions of geography publics and writing Lesh identifies new models of community engagement and articulates a framework for the spatiality of the public work of writing and writing studies
