Place-Based Sustainability Jason Montgomery, 2022-12-15 Global challenges instigated by climate change and urbanisation are driving research seeking appropriate and effective strategies for social economic and environmental sustainability While technical advancements are a major focus for sustainable development there are important research avenues that explore the relationship of place and sustainability from a number of perspectives Place based sustainability research identifies activities and initiatives that need to be layered and integrated with technological advances but also help drive them This research can facilitate the well considered steering of sustainable development and practices the essence of stewardship of place This volume of a wide range of research and design approaches by a diverse group of authors of various disciplines reveals new perspectives on the relationship of the culture of place and sustainability The central narrative that emerges from the chapters of this book is the critical cultural relationship of people to their environment both built and natural The authors delve into this relationship and see new approaches to support our awareness and appreciation of the nature of our cities and countryside as an integral ecosystem thereby having the potential to nurture social values and political will for increasing our sustainable practices and resilience The authors extend to us pathways for stewardship of our cities and countryside that are essential if we are to contend with the serious challenges provoked by our changing climate and the continuing urbanisation of the world's population The Medieval Stained Glass of St Peter Mancroft,

Norwich David King, 2006-06-22 The medieval stained glass of St Peter Mancroft Norwich is the most important collection in a country rich in this medium The glass is of exceptional quality and was painted in the city It reflects the personal religious and political interests in Norwich's urban elite who were worshipping in the leading parish church of one of England's largest cities This illustrated volume reconstructs the glazing of much of the eastern arm of the church using extensive documentary and antiquarian evidence The windows provide opportunities for the discussion of narrative display and audience and the glass is set in a local and national stylistic context There is biographical information relating to all known Norwich glaziers from 1400 to the Reformation this will constitute a invaluable resource for stained glass studies in the future The reader will also find details of the documentary evidence for the furnishing and liturgy of St Peter Mancroft transcripts of all the documents relating to the church s medieval glazing and descriptions of panels from Mancroft now in other collections
