Reading Scripture with the Church Fathers Christopher A. Faithful Defiance C. Leonard Allen, 2025-04-08 Marshall Keeble the premier evangelist in Churches of Christ in the twentieth century died in April 1968 the same month as Martin Luther King Jr Keeble spent fifty five years as a full time evangelist using his remarkable gifts steadfastness toughness and tactical navigation of the Black White divide to baptize as many as forty thousand people He planted and raised over three hundred congregations and mentored powerful sons and grandsons in the faith including Fred Gray the famous civil rights attorney Keeble's message was simple but his life is more complicated than many have thought Even his closest admirers disagreed with him and were baffled by his unflinching silence on the topic of race Never in his life did Keeble openly defy segregation although he did confront the innumerable racist attacks and humiliations he experienced His commitment to evangelism was unwavering he wanted nothing to get in the way of it He championed self help and personal morality and thought broader politics were of little value Faithful Defiance recounts the remarkable story of Keeble's life revealing fresh insights into how his legacy continues to challenge and inform the present day
