SHORT STORIES FROM THE WILD WEST In the vast rugged expanse of the Old West stories are etched into the very fabric of the land tales of courage betrayal love and loss that echo through time like the distant rumble of thunder These are not just stories of outlaws and heroes but of ordinary men and women who faced the relentless wilderness and their own inner demons Within these pages you will journey through the shadowed canyons and sun baked plains encountering characters whose lives intertwine with the raw untamed spirit of the frontier Some seek redemption others vengeance some find hope amidst despair while others are forever haunted by the ghosts of their past These short tales aim to capture the essence of a world where law was often made by the strong and where every sunset brought the promise of new adventures and new dangers Step into the stories and discover the enduring spirit of the West where every moment is a fight for survival and every legend begins with a single daring step into the unknown Welcome to More Than a Gift Tales from the Western Frontier May these stories remind you that in the wildest places the human spirit is often the bravest thing of all Cade tightened his knees to keep his horse steady managing her lively movements and shielding the dry ground beneath from stray hooves The four raised dirt ridges concealed the still warm remains of his fallen companions His new horse had a bold spirit and an unquenchable desire for speed but she would have to remain patient for a little while longer before she could race freely The black spots on her pure white coat made her the most stunning horse he had ever possessed but also the one most likely to attract attention He needed to sell her at the earliest opportunity For now the piebald generously given to him by the frontier town for his bravery and sacrifice would take him as far away from its walls as he could manage He hoped the distance she provided would ease the intense shame gnawing at his mind After saying a final farewell and offering one last apology he aimed to escape the memories of his loss as quickly as possible Unable to contain the excitement of his new filly any longer Cade ensured his saddlebags were secure took a drink from his worn rawhide canteen and silently tipped his hat to his fallen comrades for the final time Turning her to face the wide open prairie it took just a light prod from his spurs to launch her forward unleashing a cloud of dust that blew away in her wake Neither of them glanced back The Untamed
