Wolfs Footprint:

The Wolf's Footprint Susan Price, 2015-05-26 An enthralling story for younger readers from double award winning author Susan Price A bad summer and the crops didn't grow Now winter is coming Everyone is hungry People search desperately for the last of the nettles and acorns Elka and her little brother Daw huddle under their blankets trying to keep warm Elka is too hungry to sleep Awake in the dark she overhears her parents whispering I don't want to watch them starve Take them into the wood and leave them Take them far in so they won't find their way back and leave them The next day their father takes them into the wood to look for mushrooms Daw goes along innocently holding his father's hand Elka follows because she doesn't want Daw to be alone The light fades Their father vanishes into the darkness among the trees He doesn't come back And then come the wolves Where do these lost children belong in the village with the people who left them to starve Or in the wood with the wolves

REVIEWS No one writes this kind of dark tale better than Price brilliantly reworks folk themes an atmospheric and poignant story Not a word is wasted Books For Keeps This is a powerful piece of writing a folk tale where difficult issues are confronted no compromises allowed and no happy ending guaranteed There's no escaping the anger of the little girl who decides to leave the world of her parents and remain with the pack of wolves who looked after her nor the loneliness of the brother who pines for her at the edge of the forest This is a classic Carousel Because of the continued demand for this book from schools and parents it has been republished by the author with new illustrations by Andrew Price Susan Price is an acclaimed prize winning author who won the Carnegie Medal in 1987 with Ghost Drum and the 1998 Guardian Children's Fiction Award for The Sterkarm Handshake She wrote her first book aged 16 and became a full time writer aged 22 She now has over twenty children's novels to her name and has been described as one of the best contemporary writers for children by Susan Hill in the Daily Telegraph The Wolf's Footprint Susan Price, 2003

In the darkness a shadow moved and something green glinted in a patch of moonlight Another shadow drifted among the trees Green eyes and grey shadows all about them watching Abandoned in the forest by parents who can no longer afford to feed them Daw and Elke are full of fear as night falls and animals surround them But instead of attacking the circling wolves offer them a chance to join the pack just one drink from the water pooling in a wolf's footprint will transform them The Wolf's Footprint Susan Price, 2016-11-11 A new edition of the enthralling original fairy story for readers of 6 to 10 from double award winning author Susan Price A bad summer and the crops didn't grow Now winter is coming Everyone is hungry People search desperately for the last of the nettles and acorns Elka and her little brother Daw huddle under their blankets trying to keep warm Elka is too hungry to sleep Awake in the dark she overhears her parents whispering I don't want to watch them starve Take them into the wood and leave them Take them far in so they won't find their way back and leave them The next day their father takes them into the wood to look for mushrooms Daw goes along innocently holding his father's hand Elka follows because she doesn't want Daw to be alone The light fades Their father vanishes into the darkness among

Studies on the Carvaka/Lokayata Ramkrishna Bhattacharya, 2011-12-15 Studies on the Carvaka Lokayata is the first attempt at a scientific study of the Carvaka Lokayata the materialist system of philosophy that flourished in ancient India between the eighth and the twelfth century CE This study seeks to disprove certain notions about the Carvaka Lokayata particularly the following that the Carvakas did not approve of any other instrument of cognition except perception and that they advocated unalloyed sensualism and hedonism This volume also seeks to establish the fact that there existed a pre Carvaka school of materialism in India although there is no way to prove that the Carvaka system grew out of it
