Simple Library Cataloging Susan Grey Akers,1927 Academic Library Cataloging Practices Benchmarks ,2008
This 254 page report presents data from a survey of the cataloging practices of approximately 80 North American academic libraries In more than 630 tables of data and related commentary from participating librarians and our analysts the report gives a broad overview of academic library cataloging practices related to outsourcing selection and deployment of personnel salaries the state of continuing education in cataloging and much more Survey participants also discuss how they define the catalogers range of responsibilities how they train their catalogers how they assess cataloging quality whether they use cataloging quotas or other measures to spur productivity what software and other cataloging technology they use and why and how they make outsourcing decisions and more Data is broken out by size and type of college and for public and private colleges Just a few of the reports many findings are presented below More than 70% of the libraries in the sample say that their catalogers have salary levels that are comparable to those of public service librarians at their institutions About 27 3% of the survey participants routinely use paraprofessional staff for original cataloging Public colleges were more than three times more likely than private colleges to use paraprofessionals for original cataloging and larger colleges were more than twice as likely as smaller ones to do so 41 56% of the libraries in the sample outsource authority control obtaining new and updated authority records About 15 6% of the libraries in the sample outsource the cataloging of e journals close to 28% of research universities do so 20 78% of libraries in the sample use MarcEdit or other MARC editor to preview records and globally edit to local standards prior to loading 29 7% of the libraries in the sample have technical services areas that track turnaround time from Acquisitions receipt to Cataloging to shelf ready distribution About 24 7% of the libraries in the sample use paraprofessional support staff for master bibliographic record enrichment in OCLC Most of those doing so were public colleges and offered beyond the B A degree Authority control experience was considered a very important criterion for hiring by only 8 11% of survey participants while a bit more than 35% considered it important 21 62% considered authority control experience not so important as a hiring criterion Practical handbook of modern library cataloging William Warner Bishop,1914 Introduction to Cataloging and the Classification of Books Margaret Mann,1930 Manual of Cataloging for Elementary School Libraries Margaret Fullerton Johnson,1927 How to Catalog a Library Henry Benjamin Wheatley,1889 The Classification and Cataloging [sic] of Books Margaret Mann,1928 How to Catalogue a Library Henry B. Wheatley,2021-05-18 In How to Catalogue a Library Henry B Wheatley addresses the intricacies of library classification in the context of the late 19th century a time when the evolution of public libraries was gaining momentum Wheatley s literary style is both precise and practical as he distills complex bibliographic principles into clear guidelines for catalogers Drawing from his extensive experience he advocates for systematic organization through a detailed exploration of methods such as author entries subject headings and the use of card catalogues which were revolutionary for the time enhancing accessibility and usability for library patrons Wheatley a noted bibliophile and librarian was deeply embedded in the intellectual currents of his era His passion for literature and commitment to improving library services stemmed from his involvement with several literary societies and his editorial work on bibliographies His firsthand experiences in various libraries and his observation of cataloguing practices provided a rich foundation for this work which remains a cornerstone in the field of library science For librarians students of library science and bibliophiles alike Wheatley s How to Catalogue a Library is an invaluable resource It offers not only a glimpse into the foundational practices of library cataloguing but also serves as a historical document that reflects the cultural significance of libraries in fostering public knowledge In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A succinct Introduction situates the work s timeless appeal and themes The Synopsis outlines the central plot highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era s events and influences that shaped the writing A thorough Analysis dissects symbols motifs and character arcs to unearth underlying meanings Reflection questions prompt you to engage personally with the work s messages connecting them to modern life Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read
