Proceeding of the 24th International Conference on Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management

2018 George Q. Huang, Chen-Fu Chien, Runliang Dou, 2019-01-12 This book records the new research findings and development in the field of industrial engineering and it will serve as the guidebook for the potential development in industrial engineering and smart manufacturing. It gathers the accepted papers from the 24th International conference on Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management held at Central South University of Forestry and Technology in Changsha during May 19-20, 2018. The aim of this conference was to provide a high level international forum for experts, scholars, and entrepreneurs at home and abroad to present the recent advances, new techniques, and application to promote discussion and interaction among academics, researchers, and professionals to promote the developments and applications of the related theories and technologies in universities and enterprises and to establish business or research relations to find global partners for future collaboration in the field of Industrial Engineering. It addresses diverse themes in smart manufacturing, artificial intelligence, ergonomics, simulation and modeling, quality and reliability, logistics, engineering data mining, and other related fields. This timely book summarizes and promotes the latest achievements in the field of industrial engineering and related fields over the past year, proposing prospects and vision for the further development.

Development and Social Change Philip McMichael, Heloise Weber, 2024-12-17 Development and Social Change explores the historical, socio-political, and ecological aspects of development. The Eighth Edition critically engages with the concept of development, tracing its roots and examining its implications in the contemporary world. Authors Philip McMichael and Heloise Weber use case studies and examples to help describe a complex world in transition. Students are encouraged to see global development as a contested historical project. By showing how development stems from unequal power relationships between and among peoples and states, often with planet-threatening environmental outcomes, it enables readers to reflect on the possibilities for more just social, ecological, and political relations.

Reshaping Environmental Science Through Machine Learning and IoT Gupta, Rajeev Kumar, Jain, Arti, Wang, John, Pateriya, Rajesh Kumar, 2024-05-06 In the face of escalating environmental challenges such as climate change, air and water pollution, and natural disasters, traditional approaches to understanding and addressing these issues have yet to be proven sufficient. Academic scholars are compelled to seek innovative solutions that marry digital intelligence and natural ecosystems. Reshaping Environmental Science Through Machine Learning and IoT serves as a comprehensive exploration into the transformative potential of Machine Learning (ML) and the Internet of Things (IoT) to address critical environmental challenges. The book establishes a robust foundation in ML and IoT, explaining their relevance to environmental science. As the narrative unfolds, it delves into diverse applications, providing theoretical insights alongside practical knowledge. From interpreting weather patterns to predicting air and water quality, the book navigates through the intricate web of environmental complexities. Notably, it unveils approaches to disaster management waste sorting and climate change monitoring showcasing the symbiotic relationship between digital intelligence and natural ecosystems This book is ideal for audiences from students and researchers to data scientists and disaster management professionals with a nuanced understanding of IoT ML and Artificial Intelligence AI

Governance of Integrated Product Policy Dirk Scheer, Frieder Rubik, 2006 European policy patterns are in a state of transformation New governance models are shifting power away from states and toward the involvement of all stakeholders and the idea of shared responsibility It s a move from command and control to push and pull What s in this new approach for the environment This book provides a detailed analysis of the example of integrated product policy IPP which aims to improve the environmental performance of products and services through their life cycle All products cause environmental degradation in some way whether from their manufacturing use or disposal The life cycle of a product is often long and complicated It covers all the areas from the extraction of natural resources through their design manufacture assembly marketing distribution sale and use to their eventual disposal as waste At the same time it also involves many different actors such as designers manufacturers marketers retailers and consumers IPP attempts to systematically stimulate each phase of this complicated chain to improve its environmental performance With the involvement of so many different products and actors there cannot be one simple policy measure for everything Instead IPP employs a whole variety of tools both voluntary and mandatory which are used to achieve identified objectives These include economic instruments the phase out of dangerous materials voluntary agreements eco labelling and product design guidelines IPP is still in relative infancy and can be seen as an ongoing process hugely dependent on effective governance measures to ensure its continued success This book presents a plethora of perspectives from policy makers researchers and consultancies representatives from business environmental and consumer associations on how to effectively conceptualise institutionalise and implement IPP The book is divided into four parts First the approach to the governance of IPP is examined in relation to other approaches to sustainable production and consumption Second the widely differing approaches to environmental product policy in practice at national supranational and global level are analysed Third the book explores the challenge of designing a coherent policy mix to support the integration of sustainable consumption and production patterns by sector and theme Finally the book concentrates on the key issue of how to involve stakeholders in IPP in order to encourage continuous innovations for sustainability throughout the value chain Governance of Integrated Product Policy aims to fill a clear gap in work to date on sustainable production and consumption by providing researchers and practitioners from politics business and civil society new insights into modern environmental governance in practice JICA Annual Report Kokusai Kyōryoku Kikō, White Papers of the Chinese Government (2009-2011) ,2012 Annual Report Kokusai Kyōryoku Jigyōdan,2008 Hardware Retailer ,1971 Sustainable Marketing and the Circular Economy in Poland Anita Proszowska,Ewa Prymon-Ryś,Anna Dubel,Anna Kondak,Aleksandra Wilk,2024-03-22 Sustainable Marketing and the Circular Economy in Poland outlines the specific challenges around formulating an organisation s marketing strategy in line with the circular economy CE framework This book helps to solve the problem of ineffective pro environmental programmes and marketing tools which are currently used by enterprises to make their activities more sustainable The authors identify key concepts and strategies of sustainable marketing to highlight the trends and development directions of marketing activities of modern enterprises Focussing on Poland as a central case study the book is illustrated with examples of organisations that are implementing sustainable marketing activities that are compatible with the CE model It also presents the results of studies which examined the pro environmental marketing efforts of small and medium sized enterprises non governmental organisations and other actors in Poland To conclude the authors put forward recommendations for CE network stakeholders regarding sustainable marketing management focussing specifically on how to avoid accusations of greenwashing and other unethical organisational behaviour This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of green marketing sustainable business and the CE as well as entrepreneurs and business professionals looking to formulate sustainable marketing strategies
