The Art and Craft of Play Directing David Stevens, 2013-03-13 Theatre is an interpretive art based upon a director's emotional reaction to reading a play and imagining a production of that play Before the audience experiences the production the director must go through a process part art and part craft to create it This book is intended to introduce undergraduate students with a solid theatre background to that process Stevens includes chapters covering theatre and art the interpretation of the script composition and movement working with actors and matters of style Each chapter contains exercises in order for students to consolidate what they have learned The complete text of John Millington Synge's Riders to the Sea is included as an example and study text and Stevens relates many examples from his own rich directing background Twenty production photos two sample floor plans and numerous diagrams round out the text The study of directing is a life long project and in this book Stevens provides a basis for that study

The Great European Stage Directors Volume 5 Paul Allain, 2021-10-07 This volume provides a fresh assessment of the pioneering practices of theatre directors Jerzy Grotowski Peter Brook and Eugenio Barba whose work has challenged and extended ideas about what theatre is and does Contributors demonstrate how each was instrumental in rethinking and reinventing theatre's possibilities where it takes place whether in theatres or beyond and who the audience might then be as well as how actors train and perform highlighting the importance of the group and collaboration The volume examines their role in establishing intercultural dialogues and practices and the wider influence of this work on theatre Consideration is also given to each director's

The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
