Staging Whiteness:

Staging Whiteness Mary F. Brewer, 2005-07-29 How whiteness is portrayed in contemporary drama and enacted in everyday life

Marking Whiteness Sonita Sarker, Jennifer Nesbit, 2025-09-01 The collection is divided into three parts to address the practices of Whiteness in modernist studies Aesthetics Intersectionality and Inter disciplinary Practice We begin with aesthetics because modernism is the aesthetic produced in dynamic relation to the cultural formations of modernity perceived rapid changes in labor transportation technology and perceptions of body mind and even character Essays in this section examine how the production of Whiteness is baked in as a positive value in assessing the value of cultural production The second section focuses on the embodiment of Whiteness primarily through the gendered and racialized female body as a deflective practice that unmarks Whiteness while making it central to cultural crises around morality national borders and futurity The third section considers the tacit prioritization of Whiteness as a positive value through institutional structures and pedagogical practice these case studies ruminate on the generative potential of isolating and marking these effects In each essay scholars examine the stakes of marking Whiteness as a category of analysis distinct from yet wholly imbricated with racial categorization given the potential for reification inherent in all strategies of marking

Shakespeare and Costume in Practice Bridget Escolme, 2020-12-23 What is the role of costume in Shakespeare production Shakespeare and Costume in Practice argues that costume design choices are central not only to the creation of period setting and the actor's work on character but to the cultural political and psychological meanings that the theatre makes of Shakespeare The book explores questions about what the first Hamlet looked like in his mourning cloak how costumes for a Shakespeare comedy can reflect or critique the collective nostalgias a culture has for its past how costume and casting work together to ask new questions about Shakespeare and race Using production case studies of Hamlet Much Ado About Nothing and The Tempest the book demonstrates that costume design can be a site of experimentation playfulness and transgression in the theatre and that it can provoke audiences to think again about what power race and gender look like on the Shakespearean stage

Mapping Landscapes for Performance as Research Shannon Rose Riley, Lynette Hunter, 2009-07-16 Although the sciences have long understood the value of practice based research the arts and humanities have tended to structure a gap between practice and analysis This book examines differences and similarities between Performance as Research practices in various community and national contexts mapping out the landscape of this new field

Rowdy Carousals J. Chris Westgate, 2024-07-01 Rowdy Carousals makes important interventions in nineteenth century theatre history with regard to the Bowery Boy a raucous white urban character most famously exemplified by Mose from A Glance at New York in 1848 Theatrical representations of the Bowery Boy emphasized the privileges of whiteness against nonwhite workers including enslaved and free African Americans during the Antebellum Period an articulation of white superiority that continued through the early twentieth century with Jewish Italian and Chinese immigrants The book's examination of working class whiteness on stage in the theatre and in print culture invites theatre historians and critics to check the impulse to downplay or ignore questions about race and ethnicity in discussion of the Bowery Boy J Chris Westgate further explores links between the Bowery Boy s rowdyism in the nineteenth century and the resurgence of white supremacy in the early twenty first century Staging Blackness and Performing Whiteness in Eighteenth-Century German Drama Wendy

Sutherland,2019-12-14 Focusing on eighteenth century cultural productions Wendy Sutherland examines how representations of race in philosophy anthropology aesthetics drama and court painting influenced the construction of a white bourgeois German self Sutherland positions her work within the framework of the transatlantic slave trade showing that slavery colonialism and the triangular trade between Europe West Africa and the Caribbean function as the global stage on which German bourgeois dramas by Friedrich Wilhelm Ziegler Ernst Lorenz Rathlef and Theodor Körner and a novella by Heinrich von Kleist on which Körner s play was based were performed against a backdrop of philosophical and anthropological influences Plays had an important role in educating the rising bourgeois class in morality Sutherland argues with fathers and daughters offered as exemplary moral figures in contrast to the depraved aristocracy At the same time black female protagonists in nontraditional dramas represent the boundaries of physical beauty and marriage eligibility while also complicating ideas of moral beauty embodied in the concept of the beautiful soul Her book offers convincing evidence that the eighteenth century German stage grappled with the representation of blackness during the Age of Goethe even though the German states were neither colonial powers nor direct participants in the slave trade Collections as Relations

Hansjörg Dilger,Barbara Göbel,Lars-Christian Koch,Stephanie Schütze,Alexis von Poser,2024-11-04 This book explores anthropological and global art collections as a catalyst a medium and an expression of relations Relations between and among objects and media people and material and immaterial contexts define configure and potentially transform collection related social and professional networks discourses and practices and increasingly museums and other collecting institutions themselves The contributors argue that a focus on the often contested making and remaking of relations provides a unique conceptual entrypoint for understanding collections and their objects and media s complex histories contemporary webs of interactions and potential futures The chapters examine the local translocal and transregional relations of collections with regard to their affective aesthetic performative and socio moral qualities and situate them in the larger geopolitical constellations of precolonial colonial and postcolonial settings Together they investigate ongoing shifts in the relations of collections and collecting institutions by identifying alternative approaches to conceive of and deal with anthropological and global art collections objects and media in the future The book is of interest to scholars from anthropology global art history museum studies and heritage studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Against Normalization Anthony O'Brien,2001-04-13 A literary study of South African cultural changes since the end of apartheid from
