Technology Transfer By Multinational 2v:

Multinational Companies, Knowledge and Technology Transfer Alper Sönmez, 2013-12-18 This book provides evidence on how FDI leads to knowledge and technology transfers towards domestic firms by paying attention to the role of multinational companies The author presents a comprehensive empirical research conducted at firm level in the Turkish automotive industry Using a representative sample of face to face in depth interviews with top executives and a survey of top level managers of domestic suppliers the research analyzes the existence channels intensity and determinants and the kind of transfers that occur at both inter and intra firm level in the industry The author contends that policies aimed at attracting FDI flows should be re examined under the findings and insights of this study since it is a necessary although not sufficient condition to have an efficient absorptive capacity level and or skilled human capital stock in order to benefit from these flows This study has policy implications for the automotive industry as well as practical recommendations for the public institutions and top executives in emerging country companies and multinationals in order to conceive and implement science and technology policies in supporting the knowledge transfers

International Technology Transfer by Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Peter J. Buckley, Jaime Campos, Eduardo White, 2016-07-27 The book is the culmination of a research effort which spanned all continents and involved a large number of research teams from both the industrialised and developing countries The book addresses a number of key issues related to technology transfer by small and medium sized enterprises most especially whether such companies are more effective transferors than larger transnational corporations A key aspect of the research was the fact that firms in source and host countries were matched to assure a degree of consistency in the firm coverage and their responses
