The Everlasting Covenant of the Kingdom Blake Higginbotham,2017-12-29 The term covenant is normally used when referring to the older and newer testaments of the Bible The Scripture It is most commonly used when referring to a legal contract or binding agreement between one or more people That being said it is more about Yahweh s promise of blessing and favor to those who remember His covenant and keep His commandments to do them Remembering that Yahweh is and has always been a covenant making and keeping Elohim and His Covenant and Kingdom are both Everlasting and Eternal Keeping His commandments is about loving Him and His ways and obeying the universal LAW or WORD that governs our lives It is NOT about you and me making some carnal agreement with Him or attempting to fulfil the righteous requirements of the LAW apart from Holy Spirit It is NOT about some SOULISH VOW or RELIGIOUS COMMITMENT Remembering His Covenant is about living and walking in and by Holy Spirit and being ever mindful of the blessing and His favor and way If grace and peace is the stabilizing force of all we say and do then when grace and peace are not working it should be an indicator that we are no longer resting in Him Leaving His rest and operating outside of His grace and peace facilitates carnal judgments and fleshly works Both of which will result in failure to remember His covenant of love and grace He is remembering forever His Covenant His WORD to 1000 generations He commanded us to remember His Covenant but He did not suggest that we could do anything to save or redeem ourselves from the curse of NOT obeying the LAW The Scripture does not teach that the LAW of YAHWEH is a curse nor does it teach that the righteous requirement of the LAW does not have to be fulfilled It is a mistake to assume that love and grace did away with the consequences of breaking the universal LAW or WORD of Yahweh Simply put the curse of the law is the consequences that we suffer because of sin and disobedience The blood of the everlasting covenant of the Kingdom accomplished in that moment what human effort never could
