The Extinct Cognitive Christian Dean W. Boening, 2000-08 The Christian belief is a natural outgrowth of an innate human yearning to make sense of our place in the world Christianity is of great emotional and spiritual comfort to many because it teaches that we are important individually that God has a special love for humans and wants us to spend eternity with Him Although such a belief may help in coping with life's cruelties it precludes believers from seeing the world as it is instead seeing it as they wish it to be The fear of Christian leaders to give their own statements of faith any intellectual attention has led not only to the feeble-mindedness of the Christian but also a weakening of the power of the God they worship Prevailing biblical interpretations have effectively taken away many attributes of God stripping Him of His omnipotent nature Christianity's principles may be eternal but expression of those principles requires continual development Scientific progress may on occasion require a religious belief to be expanded explained or entirely restated as a result of emerging evidence However this is not happening A scientific outlook would prevent the Christian imagination from the excesses to which it is prone Dean Boening received his B.S. in the biological sciences and education from George Fox College and his M.S. in Public Health and Toxicology from Oregon State University He regularly publishes in scientific journals and is currently a senior environmental scientist with Lockheed Martin Corporation One Generation from Extinction Mark Griffiths, 2012-09-12 When Robert Raikes started his first Sunday School in 1780 he saw his idea grow to reach 300,000 unchurched children within five years this in a nation widely ignorant of Christian ideas and values Mark Griffiths has used Raikes' pioneering work in examining child evangelism in the UK Working from extensive local and national research leading to a PhD he considers how children tick what basic theology is at work in Christian outreach and what constitutes best practice in child evangelism His text is studded with insights and observations and brings together the author's passion for his subject with the rigour of careful research This is an unparalleled resource laying the foundations of future growth Moral Passion and Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2017-03-06 Using a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between moral passion and rational ethical deliberation Extinction and Religion Jeremy H. Kidwell, Stefan Skrimshire, 2024-01-02 Human caused extinctions have never been so prominent in our political and cultural landscape Extinction and Religion is a collection of wide-ranging chapters that explore the implications for religious faith and experience as it relates to a sixth mass extinction in Earth's history Further it seeks to answer the question as to how religious and spiritual practices are shaping responses to the crisis Edited by Jeremy H. Kidwell and Stefan Skrimshire this collection aims to set a new postsecular agenda articulating the questions challenges and ways forward for thinking about religion in an age of mass extinction rather than provide responses from world religions in isolation It covers subjects such as the multitude of challenges posed by mass extinction to beliefs about the future of humanity death and the afterlife the integrity of creation and the relationship between human and nonhuman life Wide-ranging and incisive Extinction and

Religion amply demonstrates the many ways in which the threat of extinction profoundly affects our faith and religious life worlds

Early Buddhism and Christianity Chai-Shin Yu,1981 This is a scholarly book on the first hundred years of the institutional aspect of the Buddhist religion In the book the author has concentrated on the development of Buddhism as it applied to the monastic community as well as the lay people dispelling the notion that Buddhism was only a philosophical system concerned with an independent quest by a few toward nirvana Although there are a number of books in the market dealing with the doctrinal aspects of the religion there are few that deal with the basic factors making it a popular religion namely the authority of the founder the nature of the communities and discipline within both monastic community and the lay These aspects are further highlighted in the conclusion where they are compared with parallel developments during the same early period of Christianity This fresh approach is particularly enlightening to the general reader and the students in religious studies Asian studies and history the book contains Bibliography and Index

Positivism and Christianity K.H. Klein,1974-10-31 This essay is conceived as a critical exposition of the central issues that figure in the ongoing conversation between Logical Positivists and neo Positivists on the one hand and Christian apologists on the other My expository aim is to isolate and to describe the main issues that have emerged in the extended discussion between men of Positivistic turn of mind and men sympathetic to the claims of Christianity My critical aim is to select typical influential stands that have been taken on each of these issues to assess their viability and to isolate certain dilemmas which discussion of these issues has generated I am convinced that the now commonly rejected verifiability theory of meaning is very commonly misunderstood and has been rejected by and large for the wrong reasons Before it is cast off if it is to be cast off what is needed is a reconsideration of that theory and of the objections that its several formulations have elicited Furthermore at least partially because of a misconstruing of the verifiability doctrine there have been some interesting though in my opinion unsuccessful claims advanced about the testability status of sentences expressive of Christian belief

Moreover in their haste to vindicate Christianity some apologists have been fairly cavalier in my opinion about what Christianity involves This volume offers what I hope will be a clear statement and analysis of the principle points at issue between Positivism and Christianity together with my own assessment of where the argument stands now Sapiens and Homo Deus: The E-book Collection Yuval Noah Harari,2017-02-21 Sapiens and Homo Deus The E book Collection has descriptive copy which is not yet available from the Publisher Major Problems in American Indian History Albert L.
