The Gulag Archipelago Volume 1 Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, 2022-09-27 The Gulag Archipelago An Experiment in Literary Investigation Russian Arkhipelag GULAG Note 1 is a three volume non-fiction text written between 1958 and 1968 by Russian writer and Soviet dissident Aleksandr

Solzhenitsyn It was first published in 1973 and translated into English and French the following year It covers life in what is often known as the Gulag the Soviet forced labour camp system through a narrative constructed from various sources including reports interviews statements diaries legal documents and Solzhenitsyn s own experience as a Gulag prisoner Following its publication the book initially circulated in samizdat underground publication in the Soviet Union until its appearance in the literary journal Novy Mir in 1989 in which a third of the work was published in three issues Since the dissolution of the Soviet Union The Gulag Archipelago has been officially published in Russia Historian and archival researcher Stephen G Wheatcroft described the book as a fine literary masterpiece a sharp political indictment against the Soviet regime and has had tremendous importance in raising the issue of Soviet repression in the Russian consciousness Wheatcroft wrote that the book was essentially a literary and political work and never claimed to place the camps in a historical or social scientific quantitative perspective but that in the case of qualitative estimates Solzhenitsyn gave his high estimate as he wanted to challenge the Soviet authorities to show that the scale of the camps was less than this Note 3 UCLA historian J Arch Getty wrote of Solzhenitsyn s methodology that such documentation is methodically unacceptable in other fields of history Gabor Rittersporn shared Getty s criticism saying that he is inclined to give priority to vague reminiscences and hearsay and inevitably leads towards selective bias In an interview with the German weekly newspaper Die Zeit British historian Orlando Figes stated that many Gulag inmates he interviewed for his research identified so strongly with the book s contents that they became unable to distinguish between their own experiences and what they read The Gulag Archipelago spoke for a whole nation and was the voice of all those who suffered Soviet dissident and historian Roy Medvedev referred to the book as extremely contradictory in a review for the book Medvedev described it as without parallel for its impact saying I believe there are few who will get up from their desks after reading this book the same as when they opened its first page In this regard I have nothing with which to compare Solzhenitsyn s book either in Russian or world literature wikipedia org

The Gulag in Writings of Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn and Varlam Shalamov ,2021-08-16 Alexander Solzhenitsyn and Varlam Shalamov are two of the best known Gulag writers After a short period of personal acquaintance their lives and views on literature took different paths Solzhenitsyn did not see a literary program in Shalamov s works which he describes as a result of exhaustion after years of hard labour in the camp By understanding the text as a result Solzhenitsyn critically touched on a concept of evidence which Shalamov several times emphasized as important to his own works According to Shalamov instead of the text being a re presentation it should be an extract from or substitute for the real or the factual by which his Gulag experience became present once again Concepts such as document thing and fact became important for Shalamov s self identification as a modernist At the same time Solzhenitsyn viewing his own task as one of restoring historical experiences of the Russian people and trying to explain the slow course of history and what sort of one it has been assumed the dual role of writer and historian which inevitably raises the question of what characterizes the borders between fact and fiction in his works It also raises question about dichotomies of historical and fictional truth Contributors Andrea Gullotta Fabian Heffermehl Luba Jurgenson Irina Karlsruhn Josefina Lundblad Janji Elena Mikhailik Michael A Nicholson Irina Sandomirskaja Ulrich Schmid Franziska Thun Hohenstein Leona Toker The Gulag Archipelago, 1918-1956 Aleksandr Isaevich Solzhenitsyn,1974
