Two Colonial Empires:

Two Colonial Empires C.A. Bayly, D.H. Kolff, 2012-12-06 by C A Bayly and D H A Kolff The papers published in this volume were originally presented at two meetings of the Cambridge Leiden group for the comparative study of colonial India and Indonesia held in June 1979 and September 1982 These meetings were jointly sponsored by the Centre for the History of European Expansion at Leiden and the Centre for South Asian Studies at Cambridge The Cambridge Centre had been restricted to the study of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma and Nepal but had recently incorporated Southeast Asia into its area of interest the Leiden Centre which had encouraged comparative study from the beginning necessarily found itself concentrating attention on Indonesias as the most important region of the former Dutch colonial empire The meetings were intended to be exploratory as much to alert the participants to work being done in the respective countries and to their different types of academic discourse as to compare India and Indonesia Nor were the meetings intended to be exclusive Scholars from several British and Netherlands Universities were involved from the beginning More recently a wider series of conferences has been inaugurated This brings scholars in India and Indonesia into a project which seeks to develop the comparisons between the two colonial societies on a more systematic basis

An Economic Study of Two Colonial Empires Janet Stewart Bryant, 1937 Sports in Postcolonial Worlds Nicolas Bancel, Thomas Riot, Stanislas Frenkiel, 2018-02-02 This book explores several cultural and historical paths intertwined in the genesis and development of sport and physical activities within colonial and postcolonial contexts As far as youth organizations and Western based sports are concerned the Independencies political split needs to be reconsidered from a cultural perspective with practices overlapping spatial chronological and epistemological borders When looking at the variety of practices the colonial legacies and the ensuing migration journeys through a global perspective there is a need to understand the diverse ways of composing and building the postcolonial sport worlds Multiculturalism South Africa France Algeria transnational journeys Pacific Islands rebuilding of national identities through sporting institutions Ireland West Africa racialization of the society Rwanda South Africa gender control from the West East to the North South gap sportization of traditional old games Americas and so on Following the various studies shaping this book the ambivalence of sporting and physical activities paths comes up It is apparent these trajectories have generated a mixed feeling of adhesion and repulsion towards Western hegemonies in postcolonial societies British and French Colonialism in Africa, Asia and the Middle East James R. Fichter, 2019-08-02 This book examines the connections between the British Empire and French colonialism in war peace and the various stages of competitive cooperation between in which the two empires were often enemies It argues that in crucial ways the British and French colonial empires influenced each other Chapters in the volume consider the two empires connections in North West and Central Africa as well as their entanglement at sea in the Mediterranean Sea Persian Gulf and South China Sea Also analysed are their mutual engagement with Islam in both the Hajj and various religiously inflected colonial revolts their mutually informed systems of administration in the New Hebrides and generally and the interconnected ways the two empires fought World War II and decolonization By uniting historians of France and her colonies with historians of Britain and her colonies this volume speaks to a broad international and imperial history audience Empire and Politics in the Eastern and Western Civilizations Andrea Balbo,Jaewon Ahn,Kihoon Kim,2022-08-22 The volume includes the proceedings of the 2nd Roma Sinica project conference held in Seoul in September 2019 and aims to compare some features of the ancient political thought in the Western classical tradition and in the Eastern ancient thought The contributors coming from Korea Europe USA China Japan propose new patterns of interpretation of the mutual interactions and proximities between these two cultural worlds and offer also a perspective of continuity between contemporary and ancient political thought Therefore this book is a reference place in the context of the comparative research between Roman and early Greek thought and Eastern thought Researchers interested in Cicero Seneca Plato post Platonic and post Aristotelic philosophical schools history ancient Roman and Chinese languages could find interesting materials in this work Olympism, Olympic Education and Learning Legacies Dikaia Chatziefstathiou,Norbert Müller,2014-06-26 This book is largely a collection of the papers presented at the symposium Olympism Olympic Education and Learning Legacies organised by the Comit Internationale Pierre de Coubertin CIPC It was held during the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games at Canterbury Christ Church University in Kent United Kingdom The symposium drew together presenters and audience members from twenty five nations on four continents to discuss current and future challenges of education and the Olympic Movement While most books on the Olympics focus on economic issues or on aspects related to the management of the Games such as legacies and impacts this book remains faithful to Coubertin s original vision about youth sport and education Olympism as a philosophical and educational idea is analysed in particular detail Coubertin s thoughts play a central role in many of the contributions of leading academics in the field while historical perspectives unveil new insights Young researchers are given a platform to publish their own accounts in interpreting the Olympics The different insights of the book have something to offer to anyone with an interest in sport education and the Olympic Movement either as a student teacher academic athlete coach or spectator Cross Channel Currents Douglas Johnson,Richard Mayne,Robert Tombs,2004-08-02 Cross Channel Currents explores the understandings and misunderstandings that make up the Entente Cordiale the hundred year relationship between Britain and France as well as the everyday common interests and shared pleasures that give it substance Contributors include the late Roy Jenkins in a witty and personal view of Winston Churchill s relationship with France Pierre Messmer a companion of Charles de Gaulle during World War II and later his prime minister former Foreign Secretary Douglas Hurd who remembers the historic meeting of Edward Heath and Georges Pompidou Hubert Vedrine a former French foreign minister on the difficulties of cross Channel relations and their successors Dominique de Villepin and Jack Straw Economistes and the Reinvention of Empire Pernille Røge,2019-08-08 A rich intellectual history of the reinvention of France's colonial empire in the second half of the eighteenth century

The Development of the British Empire Howard Robinson, 1922 Robinson wrote this book to introduce American students to an important part of history that wasn't taught extensively at schools and colleges in the United States The author discusses the growth of Great Britain with particular emphasis on recent years as progress had been quite rapid in the 100 years prior to his book's publication Newfoundland appears as a topic in both chapters four and twenty three as both a British colony and neighbor to the Dominion of Canada In chapter four Robinson explains how the importance of the fishery to Britain led to the colonization of the island and the resulting problems with the French Chapter twenty three includes a further description of Newfoundland's fishery her government and the possibility of joining Confederation
