Vision Of The Past:

Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE-100 CE Richard Teverson,2024-09-03 This is the first book length exploration of the ways art from the edges of the Roman Empire represented the future examining visual representations of time and the role of artwork in Roman imperial systems This book focuses on four kingdoms from across the empire Cottius s Alpine kingdom in the north King Juba II s Mauretania in the south west Herodian Judea in the east and Kommagene to the north east Art from the imperial frontier is rarely considered through the lens of the aesthetics of time and Roman provincial art and the monuments of allied rulers are typically interpreted as evidence of the interaction between Roman and local identities In this interdisciplinary study which explores statues wall paintings coins monuments and inscriptions readers learn that these artworks served as something more they were created to represent the futures that allied rulers and their people foresaw The pressure of Roman imperialism drove patrons and artists on the empire s borders to imbue their creations with increasingly sophisticated ideas about the future as they wrestled with consequential decisions made under periods of intense political pressure Comprehensively illustrated and providing an important new approach to Roman material culture at the edge of empire Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE 100 CE is suitable for students and scholars working on Rome and its frontiers as well as Roman material culture more broadly and those studying the aesthetics of time in art and art history

Visions of the Human Tom Slevin,2015-05-28 In what ways do the artistic avant garde s representations of the human body reflect the catastrophe of World War I The European modernists were inspired by developments in the nineteenth century yielding new forms of knowledge about the nature of reality and repositioning the human body as the new object of knowledge New visions of the human subject were created within this transformation However modernity s reactionary political climate for which World War I provided a catalyst transformed a once liberal ideal between humanity environment and technology into a tool of disciplinary rationalisation Visions of the Human considers the consequences of this historical moment for the twentieth and twenty first centuries It explores the ways in which the technologies of the self that inspired the avant garde were increasingly instrumentalised by conservative politics urbanism consumer capitalism and the society of the spectacle This is an engaging and powerful study which challenges prior ideas and explores new ways of thinking about modern visual culture

The Rhetorical Rise and Demise of "Democracy" in Russian Political Discourse, Volume 3 David Cratis Williams,Marilyn J. Young,Michael K. Launer,2024-02-20 In Volume Three of this four volume series we examine the rhetorical development that occurred during the first two terms of Vladimir Putin s tenure as president of the Russian Federation Initially Putin appeared to follow in the path set by his predecessor Boris Yeltsin vowing that Russia was at heart a European nation and would be a westward facing democracy going forward He even mentioned partnering with the EU and NATO Eight years later at the 2007 Munich Security Conference Putin excoriated the West for in his words attempting to create a unipolar world in which

NATO expansion threatened Russia's security the United States acted as the world's sole hegemon and Europe simply followed orders relinquishing any sense of agency in its own affairs
